ENGLISH MONEY!

British Capitalists Seeking to Control the American Patent Medicine Firms--The St. Louis Brewery Deal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—An English syndicate with several millions back of it, is trying to acquire the proprietary rights to certain American patent medicines. These properties are regarded as even more profitable than the breweries.

The principal agent of the syndicate is Thos. H. Wagstaff, a broker at No. 18 Broadway. Many proprietors of patent medicines in this city have been approached by him. One proprietor says that Mr. Wagstaff recently offered to purchase his business for the syndicate. He agreed to pay $500,000 for every 10 per cent. of profits received during the past five years. Wagstaff declined to give the names of those interested, but says the syndicate has several million dollars to invest, and has commissioned him to look into the patent medicine business in this city.

"In case the syndicate should buy the medicines," continued Wagstaff, "the present proprietors will be retained as managers for a certain time and it is almost certain that each business will continue to be managed by Americans. The English do not intend to go into the business of patent medicines themselves; all they desire is a safe investment for their money." Proprietors do not believe that the English capitalists intend to retain Americans as their managers. On the contrary, they are convenced that the Englishmen intend to run the business themselves.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—It is reported on good authority that the deal between the Associated Brewers of St. Louis and the combination of eastern and foreign capitalists, commonly denominated "an English syndicate," has practically been concluded, and there remains only the formal signing of papers of transfer to make the sale of all the brewing properties controlled by the association an accomplished fact. The capitalization of the association is $5,250,000. The association includes every brewery in the city except the Anhouser-Busch, Lemp's and the Obert breweries.

INSANITY AND PENSIONS.

A Ruling of the Pension Office Interesting to Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Assistant Secretary Bussey has over-ruled the pension office and directed that a pension be granted to Bernard Brunner for insanity, originating during his service in the late war as a private in Co. K, 123d Ohio volunteers. He was discharged for insanity on August 12, 1863.

The application was rejected by the pension office on the ground that the disability existed prior to enlistment. General Bussey finds from additional evidence that Brunner at no time in his army service exhibited more marked indications of mental alieniation than a reticent manner, fondness for solitude and the like.

The special examiner says: "There is no doubt of Brunner's insanity being of army origin."

Commenting on the facts presented General Bussey concludes: "Admitting that there was a predisposition to insanity and that the cause or causes which sufficed to destroy his mind would not have effected a stronger intellect, that fact cannot be pleaded a justification for denying him a pension.

"It is a well settled article of practice in the adjucation of pension claims that an unusually susceptibility to some form of disease existing before enlistment is no bar to pension if the disease did not develop until after the claimant's admission to the service. The rule is essentially just. The government took this man apparently sound and returned him to civil life manifestly unsound."

General Bussey directs, therefore, that Brunner, through his guardian, Josephine Fisher, be granted a pension for insanity.

BUILDING WRECKED.

A Costly Explosion at Bellaire, Ohio, This Morning.

BELLAIRE, O., Oct. 30.—One of the large boilers of the Bellaire blast furnace exploded this morning, with terrible force, cracking two other boilers in the main battery, and wrecking the boiler rooms. The south end of the nail factory was entirely demolished, windows were broken in the adjoining buildings, and the wreck was scattered over an area of one hundred yards. The damage to the mill and adjoining property is $200,000. No one was injured.

LITTLE TICKS

Telling the Day's News as it Comes From all Quarters.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 30.—Two well known citizens of Petersburg left here yesterday on the south-bound train, with a view to fighting a duel near Weldon, N. C. They were accompanied by their seconds. The trouble was satisfactorily adjusted before the duelling ground was reached, and the parties returned here in the afternoon. The affair was kept very quiet.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 30.—It was stated Monday that fully 20,000 people were destitute in North Dakota. Yesterday Mr. Marvin, chairman of the relief committee, stated that he is convinced from information received that it was nearer 20,000 families, representing a total of 100,000 people. The trouble is due to the failure of crops for the past three years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Union Pacific-Chicago and Northwestern has purchased control of the Chicago and Alton road. It now controls 27,000 miles of road, and represents $564,952,000 worth of stock.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 30.—John L. Manning, ex-governor of South Carolina, died at his plantation near Camden yesterday.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30.—George L. Calloway, of Greenville, S. C., died early this morning at the house of W. O. McDonell here, of peritonitis.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 30.—A report is in circulation here that Archduke John Salaratin, of Austria, who has voluntarily resigned his civil and military rank will shortly join the staff of the New York Herald.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Oct. 30.—The largest discovery of zinc ore, known as dry bone, ever made in the vicinity is reported on land owned by Morris Cavanaugh, on the Platte river, four miles from Potosi, Wis. The vein is said to to be ten feet wide, seven feet thick and three-quarters of a mile long. The quality is of the best.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The American horse show at the exposition building was opened to the public at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There are more than 1,000 horses in the building, valued at $500,000. The exhibit to-day will be of draft horses.

BEFORE THE SQUIRES.

Several Minor Criminal Cases Up in Court To-day.

Last evening 'Squire Scarlett fined John Cullars, who is barkeeper for Joseph Baum's "My Place" saloon on East Columbia street, $1 and costs, amounting to $11.80, for Sabbath desecration.

To-day the same 'squire fined John George Strodel for the same offense. The fine amounted to $12.30.

The 'squire would not divulge the name of the person who filed the affidavit.

'Squire Ryan to-day fined Harry Kramer $1 and costs for provoking Mary J. Hirsch. The parties live on Melita street.

An affidavit was filed against Mary Hirsch for provoking Mary Kramer. A counter affidavit was filed by Mary Hirsch against Mary Kramer. The last cases came up this afternoon.

The case of Elizabeth Hazzard for malicious trespass on a charge preferred by Patrick Cooney, was continued until Saturday.

Weather.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—For Indiana: Rain; stationary temperature, except warmer, easterly winds.

ONE WAY TO GET GOOD MILK.

It was quite early when the Arounder journeyed homeward the other morning. Day was just breaking and the milk wagons rumbled noisily over the pavements. One of these early workers was stopped before a house when two "gentlemen in hard luck" approached it. Saluting the milkman one said, producing a tin pail. "Gimme two quarts o' milk." As the milkman took the pail he continued, "It's for the city chemist."

"Sh!" interposed his fellow tramp, "he said you mustn't tell who it's for."

But the milkman's eyes lit up with a knowing look as he filled the pail with the choicest cream. So elated, in fact, was he with his own supposed cunning, that he did not think about payment until the two were out of sight. A few blocks farther the Arounder came upon the co-laborers regaling on rolls and cream. "We had to get up durned early to work it," was the remark he heard.—Buffalo Currier.

THERE is a pond in New Jersey where the sacred lotus of the East has become established and proved itself hardy, although in the winter the surface of the water is frozen over.

A DAY OF WRECKS!

A Disastrous Collision on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Road--Other Wrecks.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—About 6 o'clock this morning a freight train east bound on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad broke down near Beaver Falls station. The limited express was flagged, and to avoid delay, backed up to cross over to another track. Another freight train in the rear of the limited was unobserved and a disastrous collision occurred.

The rear platform and track of the observation car on the limited was badly broken, and the engine, tender and one car of live stock on the freight, with which it collided, were demolished. The engineer and fireman on the freight jumped from their engine and escaped with slight injuries. The front brakeman on the freight train was caught and instantly killed. The tracks were blocked and traffic delayed several hours.

OTTAWA, Ill., Oct. 30—The St. Joseph cannon-ball train on the Rock Island road ran into the rear of the Denver express at Seneca last evening, wrecking the dining car on the Denver express and the engine, tender and baggage car of the St. Joseph train. Major T. C. Gibson, of this city, an unknown lady and the engineer of the St. Joseph train were quite seriously injured.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 30.—A passenger train on the New Jersey Central road was run from the main track to a sidetrack by a misplaced switch in the yard here this morning and collided with a coal train. An engine and eight coal cars were badly wrecked and two baggage cars lost their running gear. The passenger cars did not have the rails. Fortunately no one was injured.

A GOSHEN WRECK.

GOSHEN, Ind., Oct. 30.—The limited vestibule train No. 1, west-bound, on the Lake Shore road, was wrecked at Wawaka this morning. The entire train was thrown on its side and every truck torn off. A wrecking train, with railroad officials and physicians, have gone to the scene. Various reports are rife as to the loss of life and injuries to passengers, but the truth cannot yet be learned.

ANOTHER ONE.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 30.—A collision occurred about midnight last night on the Norfolk and Western railroad, between an eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight train. They came together between Liberty and Thaxtons. Both trains were wrecked. One passenger reported killed and many injured. The firemen and engineers of both trains are said to have been killed.

STILL ANOTHER ONE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 30.—The Baltimore and Ohio passenger train which left Washington at 4:20 yesterday afternoon, ran into an engine and twenty freight cars near Canton, while running at a very high speed. The freight train was completely wrecked. The passenger engine was badly smashed up. It was derailed, and came within a foot of going over a steep embankment. The passengers were badly shaken up, but no one was injured. It is claimed that the freight train displayed no lights and had no business on the track.

A PITCHED BATTLE

Expected Between the Hatfield and McCoy Gangs.

MILTON, W. Va., Oct. 30.—A hundred and fifty men, nearly equally divided between the Hatfield and McCoy factions, were massed some ten or twelve miles south of Hamlin last night and a bloody battle to-day is inevitable. The McCoys are intrenched in the hills and at last reports the Hatfields had discovered their whereabouts and were marching, about sixty strong, to attack them, but nothing could be done before morning.

Joseph Unquarhart, a Hatfield man, was murdered last week by Green McCoy, and Milton Haley, who were both shot from ambush within two hours. Both factions have since been making preparations for the fight.

Recently in the circuit court a verdict was rendered in favor of Mary Shondel, giving her a judgment of $1,000 against Anthony Feulner for a breach of promise. The defendant has filed his answer and will contest the case.

Mr. John Baker, driver for the United States Express company, took Barrett, the murderer, to the northern prison yesterday.

This afternoon Judge O'Rourke married Frank Orwic, of North Baltimore, Ohio, and Nellie Ransdotton, of Monroeville.

AFTER VALUABLE LAND.

Ninety-Three Acres of Property Sought After at Big Money.

Mr. E. Siberly, who was looking around the city yesterday in the interest of a Chicago real estate syndicate, made an offer, it is stated, on the Anthony Wayne park, and adjoining property, of ninety-three acres.

He claims that Messrs. Bash, Paul and Ellison of this city, have already negotiated for the land at the price of $60,000, for the purpose of sub-dividing and making into useful real estate.

Mr. Siberly has already made several inferior deals here and will shortly return.

AN ICE HOUSE.

Fred Helling is Erecting a Beauty Spot for the City Park.

Mr. Fred Helling, the ice dealer, today had work commenced on his new ice house adjoining the north side city park.

The ground the building occupies is about 150x300, and he offered it to the city for the sum of $2,000.

The offer was rejected by the finance committee. As a result, a barn structure is being erected which will be an eyesore to anybody who may visit the park and a disgrace to the surroundings.

A HAND MASHED.

James Fay, a Switchman, Meets With an Accident.

Last night James Fay, a switchman in the yards of the Pennsylvania company, had his right hand mashed between the bumpers so that the company surgeon found it necessary to amputate the thumb and index finger.

Fay is at the St. Joe hospital, where he will remain until it is learned whether further amputation will have to be made.

ANOTHER ONE.

William Conners, of the Pittsburg machine shop, had the index finger of his right hand severed by accident today. He is a son of Mike Conners, the fireman at the Seventh ward engine house, and lives at 43 Charles street.

A PLUNGE TO DEATH.

Justin McCarty, of Columbia City, Falls Under the Wheels.

Last evening Justin McCarty, a brickmaker of Columbia City, was in the city pleasantly chatting with friends. In less than half an hour afteward his mangled remains, with a leg and arm severed from the body, were conveyed to the St. Joe hospital, where the man breathed his last at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

McCarty jumped on freight train No. 75, homeward bound, and when near the Lindenwood cemetery he either fell or was thrust from the top of the train, falling under the train, which ran over the unfortunate man's left leg below the knee and left arm below the elbow. These injuries, with the various bruises on the man's body, caused fatal results as stated.

The wife of the unfortunate man arrived last night and had the remains sent to Columbia City to-day for interment.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

They Cheer the Stars and Stripes and Kiss the Faded Flag of the Confederacy.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 30.—Fifteen hundred Confederate veterans assembled in O'Brien's opera house yesterday and organized a state association. The object is to raise money by popular subscription to build a home for disabled and homeless Confederate veterans. Telegrams and letters from Jefferson Davis, Joe E. Johnston, Wade Hampton and others were read.

The stage was decorated with the national colors on the right and the torn and faded confederate flags on the left. The veterans cheered the stars and stripes and kissed the faded flags of the confederacy reverently. Gen. E. W. Pelters was elected president of the association, with a vice-president from each congressional district.

A BOY BURNED.

A Son of Amos Murphy Burned With Melted Lead.

To-day, a twelve-year-old son of Mr. Amos Murphy, the painter, residing at 336 East Wayne street, was badly burned about the lower limbs by the upsetting of a caldron containing melted lead.

The lad was watching the workmen engaged in laying natural gas mains at the corner of Oak and Ohio street, when the accident happened. He was carried to his home and now suffers great agony.

MISSIONARY MASSACRED.

Rev. Mr. Savage and a Number of Teachers Murdered by the Natives of New Guinea.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The London missionary society has received news of the massacre, by natives, of Rev. Mr. Savage, a number of native teachers, and the crew of the society's vessel, the Mary, in New Guinea. The cause of the uprising is not known. Mr. Savage was sent out by the society some years ago and had been a very successful missionary. The government of Queensland has sent a steamer to the scene of the massacre.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Dr. Schweinfurth, in a letter published here to-day, states that letters from Emin Bey have reached Captain Wissman which justify the expectation that Stanley and Emin will soon arrive at Mhwapa.

DUBLIN, Oct. 30.—A number of the defendants on trial at Gwedone charged with being implicated, to a more or less extent, in the murder of Police Inspector Martin, were to-day adjudged guilty and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The Figaro announces that Prince Murat left Paris yesterday, that Miss Caldwell sails for New York Saturday and that the marriage is off.

BURKE'S CONFESSION.

The Officers at Winnipeg Looking After Its Truth.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30.—Assistant State's Attorney Baker, of Chicago, was yesterday closeted for a long time with ex-Convict Heffer, and is said to be convinced that Heffer's story regarding Burke's confession is true.

Heffer, however, said he had no intention of appearing as a witness in the Cronin case, unless he was well paid for his services.

Mr. Baker also had an interview with Gillette, the Fargo forger, who was another of Burke's confederates in the jail. Gillette was yesterday sentenced to thirty years in the penitentiary, but the authorities have agreed to hold him in the jail here for a day or two, in order to give Mr. Baker an opportunity to secure a sworn statement from him.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The crowd that gathered about Judge McConnell's court this morning was larger than at any time yet. The cause of the increased interest was the expected revelations from the Clan-na-Gael witness, Stephen Colleran, whose examination was to be resumed this morning.

In the absence of Colleran, Dennis O'Connor was called. In reply to questions by Judge Longenecker, he testified that he had been a member of the Clan-na-Gael twenty-one years. He was at the meeting of Camp 20, February 8. He heard Andrew Foy "make a few remarks," but no speech. "No Clan-na-Gael man made speeches; only remarks."

THE BENDER MURDER

Recalled by a Case on Trial at Niles, Mich.

NILES, Mich., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Eliza Davis was discharged yesterday on the charge of grand larceny. During the trial many facts were adduced tending to show that Mrs. Monroe (Mrs. Davis' mother) was connected with the Bender murders, in Kansas. By her own admissions Mrs. Monroe has had seven husbands and a number of them have mysteriously disappeared. Her daughter, Eliza, insists positively that Mrs. Monroe is old Mrs. Bender.

Much interest was manifested and many blood curdling and horrible revelations were brought out during the examination. Officers from Kansas have been in the state for ten days investigating the case and are satisfied that they have at last discovered the notorious Bender family. A requisition has been asked for and as soon as it arrives the parties will be taken to LaBette county, Kansas, for trial.

ANOTHER FAIR.

The Father Edwards Council Have a a Successful Event.

Commencing Monday evening and closing last night the Father Edward Council, C. B. L., held at the hall opposite St. Paul's Catholic church, a fair and festival that was a success socially and financially.

The elegant gold headed cane which was up for the most popular president of the St. Julian council and the Father Edward council resulted in awarding the prize to the latter, the vote standing thus: Frank Brucker, 1,501; Jacob Hartman, 837½.

The receipts of the fair will go toward purchasing new uniforms for the Father Edward council.

RESORTED TO LEAD.

Frank Rhodes Discouraged Through Sickness, Commits Suicide.

Frank Rhodes, a man about forty-five years old, committed suicide about 10:15 o'clock this morning, by shooting himself.

Rhodes for six years past has been a resident of this city and for a long time has been employed in the Muncie section gang under Foreman John Cashman.

He boarded with Mrs. M. E. Blount, at 5 North Calhoun street, in Bloomingdale, whither a SENTINEL reporter went upon hearing the news of the attempted suicide, which resulted so successfully.

The reporter entered a neatly furnished sitting room, from which access was had to a bed-room. From this apartment was emitted the noise of the death rattle that told too plainly of the fate of the man who a few minutes before had sent a bullet through his brain.

Coroner Kessler and Dr. Charles Stults, who were at the bedside over the unconscious form, probed and found the bullet lodged in the brain. They pronounced the wound fatal.

Mrs. Blount gave her version of the affair by stating that Rhodes had been confined to the bed for three weeks past; that about 10:15 o'clock this morning she heard a noise as though the window to the bedroom had fallen, but which in fact, as she discovered a few moments later, was the report of the 32-calibre revolver, with which weapon the man had deliberately taken his life.

The woman stated that Rhodes was an honest and industrious character.

The suicide is attributed to the discouraging situation in which the man was placed. He had no known relatives, worked hard to eke out a meagre existence and when misfortune came he was too miserable to endure it.

A report from the man's bedside at noon to-day was to the effect that he would hardly survive the day.

He was a single man and had no wife, children or other relatives.

TO MARK HIS GRAVE.

A Monument to be Erected on the Grave of Father O'Leary.

To the friends of Father O'Leary:

The undersigned have been selected by Father Brammer as a committee to arrange for the erection of a monument to mark the resting place of the late Father O'Leary.

No personal appeal will be made, but all who feel so disposed are requested to hand their contribution to Mr. L. Jocquel, the treasurer of the committee, who will receipt for the same. It is earnestly desired that contributions be handed in early so that the purpose in hand may be consummated within the next sixty days.

The subscription book is now open at Mr. Jocquel's store, at No. 168 Calhoun street.

REFORM SCHOOL REPORT.

Comparative Showing by Counties--Work Done by the Boys.

The superintendent of the reform school for boys yesterday made his semi-annual report of the accounts due from the various counties of the state for one-half the expenses of maintenance and instruction of the boys at the school. The estimated annual expense (per capita) of each boy is $120. Each county pays one-half this amount. The amount due from counties for the past six months is $13,037.25. In that time there were eighty-one counties that had representatives in the school. The following counties were not represented: Franklin, Orange, Starke, Jasper, Marshall, Parke, Union, Ripley, Newton, Ohio and Scott.

There were 564 boys reported as having been in the school during this period. The counties having the largest population had the most boys. First in rank was Marion with 101; then came Vigo with 41, Decatur 22, and Allen 20.

The annual report to the governor will show the reform school free from all debt, and otherwise in first-class condition. The new steam plant is approaching completion and will be used this winter. The crops were exceptionally bountiful and the health of the boys good. The board of control, consisting of Judge Lewis Jordan, of Indianapolis, L. A. Barnett, of Danville, and Colone A. D. Vanosdol, of Madison, will meet on Saturday. Superintendent Charlton is proud of the work done during the year.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30, 1889.

TO-MORROW night is All Hallowe'en. THE SENTINEL has something to say about it in another column.

AT a meeting of the Pittsburg Window Glass Manufacturers' association it was decided to advance the price of glass 5 per cent. This is the second advance of 5 per cent. this fall.

THE Republicans talked a month or two ago about carrying New Jersey. Now they think that General Grubb, the republican candidate for governor, will be able to reduce the democratic majority to the lowest point in the history of the state.

FRANK SHANK, who was sentenced to a term of seven years in the southern prison in 1888, was paroled by the governor yesterday. Shank was convicted of trying to kill his sweetheart, Miss Lulu Penny, of East Germantown, Wayne county, in a fit of jealousy. He has contracted consumption since his confinement began, and the warden of the prison telegraphed the governor that his death is a matter of a few days at most, and recommends that he be sent home to die.

A MAD MONARCH.

One of the saddest spectacles which it is possible to conceive is that presented by the prisoner of Furstenried, the mad King of Bavaria. Tall and almost as gigantic in stature as his brother, the late King Ludwig, his appearance is sufficient to startle any one who sees him for the first time. His hair is long and unkempt, and his bushy brown beard reaches down below his waist. There is a kind of weird, wild look in his eyes, the gaze of which remains steadfastly fixed straight ahead into empty space.

The only person who can succeed in bringing a gleam of intelligence to his face is the sixty-year-old Madame Marie, who was his nurse when a child and who has now become one of the principal members of his household. She is the only one who is permitted to speak to him, everybody else being under strict orders not to address a single word to him or to take the slightest notice of him when he walks about the park.

He is invariably dressed in black broadcloth, and requires a new suit almost every day; for, owing to his strange objection to the use of either pocket-handkerchiefs or table napkins, his coat-sleeves and coat-tails have to do service for both. For hours he will stand, gesticulate wildly, and talk to the imaginary personage created by his fantasy, and then again for several days together he will remain in such a state of lethargy and lifelessness that his physicians become afraid that he will pass away without even their becoming aware of it. All day long, except when overcome by one of his bi-weekly or tri-weekly fits of apathy, he will puff away at cigarettes, of which he smokes almost a hundred a day.

It is impossible to predict how much longer he will live. He may drag on his present miserable existence for years; while, on the other hand, it is likely that the failure of the natural functions of the body may bring on a malady which will carry him off in a few days. As his madness is of an altogether incurable nature, his death can only be regarded in the light of a happy release.

OUR TRADE WITH MEXICO.

In an interview on Mexican import taxes, Hon. Thomas Ryan, minister of the United States to Mexico, said: "A decree has been issued, to take effect the first of the month, removing live stock and fresh meats from the free list and imposing a heavy tariff. The tariff on fresh meats will be five cents a pound, which is practically prohibitory. The tariff on live stock is scarcely less. There are no statistics showing the value of exports from the United States into Mexico, but their volume is large, and, to the best of my judgment, the balance of the trade has been several millions in our favor. The result of moving live stock and fresh meats from the free list will be injurious to the Mexican railroads. It is to be regretted that no figures are available to show our Mexican exports. The law provides merely for collating figures of maritime commerce, and is antiquated. It should be amended by congress at an early day.

"Mexico is a wonderful country; wonderful in people, in climate, in resources and possibilities. The United States pays out $100,000,000 in cash annually for products which Mexico could furnish us, and would take in exchange the products of our manufactories and enterprises. I believe that even a limited measure of reciprocity would, within five years, develop a Mexican commerce of $100,000,000 annually. It is to be hoped that both nations will awake to the opportunities and advantages of closer relations. Mexico wants machinery, agricultural implements, cloths, tools, meats, live stock—everything we can furnish here, in fact. The Mexicans are a wealthy people. What they want they have. The country raises a revenue of $30,000,000. Of this, $20,000,000 is by a tariff on imports. Yet she would be willing to sacrifice a part of this, undoubtedly, to secure reciprocal relations with the United States."

ALL HALLOWE'EN,

Which Occurs To-morrow Night, Calls up Memories Dear--Its Observance in This City.

The average school boy does not need to be told that to-morrow night is Hallowe'en. Ever since the cabbage plant developed into the full grown head he has had his eye fixed on the date and he knows it comes on the night of October 31. He calls it "cabbage night," and to him it means a time when fun runs riot and he is given the privilege and the right of indulging in all sorts of pranks.

When darkness has crept over the earth he joins his companions and they are out for a lark, and nothing is too mischeivous or daring for them to undertake. They know where the cabbage is to be got. Its location has been a sort of an "open secret" with them for weeks and having secured a supply they make their rounds, bumping doors on their way, lifting gates off hinges, tying strings across the sidewalk and perpetrating all the mischief that youthful ingenuity can invent.

The occasion is probably, in this respect, not what it used to be. The older readers of THE SENTINEL well remember how they used to celebrate it in the days of long ago and they can tell you tales of mischief done in their country village homes that would startle for their boldness and danger the boys of to-day.

That was a time when the blue-coated "cop" did not stand on every corner. The only individual they had to watch was the town marshal, and he was an easy going sort of an individual whose vigilance was easy to evade. The boys of to-day would be arrested and placed in the lock-up for doing what the boys of twenty and thirty years ago did on Hallowe'en, and it is a pleasure to recall these times, and the memories of many will be refreshed as the setting of to-morrow's sun ushers in Hallowe'en.

It is an ancient and honored festivity that falls on October 31. It has always been popular in Great Britain, particularly in the north country, out of which have come so many quaint and curious customs. The Scots and their descendants in America take especially kindly to the old festivals and their proper observance, and this one of Hallowe'en, the virgil of Hallomas, or All Saints Day, is remembered and will be celebrated everywhere to-morrow night in a becoming manner.

The beliefs and practices of the young men and maidens, described by Robbie Burns in his poem on Hallowe'en, have passed away, and have been replaced by the less romantic, but quite as enjoyable festivities of the fireside, such as ducking for apples in tubs of water, cracking jokes and nuts about the hearth, making mirth and candy, and playing the innumerable innocent games that form so much of the recreation of the Scotch people.

Many of these observances have been translated from the hills and glens, the cottages and clachans of Highlands and Lowlands, and will be repeated to-morrow night, even till "the wee sma' hours agant the twal."

In this city Hallowe'en will be celebrated by the boys and in the "fun" of the night cabbage will play no small part, despite the vigilance of the police. But to the Scotchmen it will be the most joyous occasion. Their Robbie Burns has made it dear to them and amusements appropriate to the occasion will be indulged in. The Caledonians will meet in their hall on Calhoun street and give an interesting program of song and literary exercises. Rev. Dr. Moffat will deliver an address, supper will be served and the occasion will close with a dance, in which all the lads and lassies of the city will particiipate.

GRAY AND SISTINE MADONNA.

The Ex-Governor Mistook Her Portrait For That of a Relative of a Fort Wayne Man.

A Washington letter in the New York Tribune has the following, which is of local interest:

An Indiana man who was here this week told a neat story about Gov. Isaac P. Gray. It seems that the democratic governor of Indiana was given a dinner lately by a well known lawyer of Fort Wayne. Half a dozen prominent citizens were invited to meet him, all of whom were loyal democrats. After dinner the guests adjourned to the library, where the host had some fair imitations of the "old masters." The governor strolled around the room, smoking his cigar and looking at the paintings. Before one he stopped, evidently pleased. He put up his eye-glass, and after an admiring inspection, turned to his host:

"Ah-h ——," speaking his host's name, "this is an amiable, pleasant-faced lady. Ah-h, relative of yours?"

"That's the Sistine Madonna, governor," replied the host, indulgently, as he looked nervously at the other occupants of the room.

"Hegh? Sister——? I didn't quite catch the name. Now that I look at it closely," again adjusting his glass, "it does resemble you slightly, but I didn't know that your father had any daughters. May I ask, is your sister——, ah, your sister——, didn't quite catch the name, is she still living?"

The host and his other guests were convulsed, but Isaac was so intent on the picture that he did not notice it, and among them they managed to let the governor down easy without giving him any more definite information about the Madonna's relationship to the host.

"A truly amiable face," mused the governor, pocketing the glass. "My friend here is blessed in having such a female relative."

"After he left, the host and his guests made a compact not to let the story go beyond the library walls, but as the host himself is a raconteur of tales, as well as a good democrat, it leaked out, and now, from one end of Indiana to another, the initiated know the story of Gov. Isaac P. Gray and the Sistine Madonna.

AN UNCONFIRMED RUMOR.

The Brush Electric Light Absorbed by the Thomson-Houston.

The Western Electrician, of Chicago, regarded as authority on all electric matters, contains an account of a deal which will be interesting to Fort Wayne, moreover as it is claimed the Thomson-Houston company, practical owners of the Jenney works here, have absorbed the Brush light system.

The Electrician says: "The report has been general during the past few days that the control of the Brush Electric company of Cleveland, has been acquired by the Thomson-Houston company of Boston. Investigation confirms the reports in so far as the sale of the Brush company goes. The control of this company has recently been acquired by Boston parties. The autonomy of the Brush company is not to be disturbed in the slightest. Its principal office will still be in Cleveland and its factories and business will be conducted as heretofore. The Brush company is the pioneer company in the electric light business and has grown to mammoth proportions. It is understood that it took $3,200,000 to purchase a bare control of the stock. The transfer of the control of this company is, therefore, of high importance, and the first reports concerning it were not believed by electrical people generally. Investigation, however, shows the rumor to be true, so far as the main facts of the transfer go."

James S. Murphy, M. D., Company's Shops, N. C., writes:—"I sell a great deal of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, for every one who tries it, likes it."

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy." Of course! Why those old duffers suffered horribly with aches and pains; and didn't and couldn't know that Salvation Oil would cure them.

A GORGEOUS PRODUCTION.

Standing Room at a Premium at the Temple Last Evening.

Citizens of Fort Wayne and vicinity were well represented in the Masonic audience that assembled to witness the second presentation of Hanlon Bros.' famous scenic spectacle, "New Fantasma," last evening. The plays furnished the theatre-going public by this popular play-house seem to grow better with age and the performance last night was in every way commensurate with the large crowd. "Fantasma" as seen in this city on previous occasions was suburb, but the production as now given by the Hanlons is superior to anything that is now occupying the attention of the Thespian-loving public. The plot is a thin structure in which an opportunity is given for some very clever tricks, specialties, etc., and the decapitation last evening seemed to thrill the audience with horror, as the head of Pico rolled down upon the stage.

"Fantasma" will be repeated to-night for the last time and every person enjoying a huge laugh should attend.

"If a woman is pretty,
To me 'tis no matter,
Be she blonde or brunette,
So she lets me look at her."

An unhealthy woman is rarely, if ever, beautiful. The peculiar diseases to which so many of the sex are subject are prolific causes of pale, sallow faces, blotched with unsightly pimples, dull, lustreless eyes and emaciated forms. Women so afflicted can be permanently cured by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and with the restoration of health comes that beauty which, combined with good qualities of head and heart, makes women angels of loveliness. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers that it will give satisfaction in every case or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

SKINS ON FIRE

CURED BY CUTICURA.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your Cuticura Remedies, and after using three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, with Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.
ISAAC H. GERMAN, Wurtsboro, N. Y.

Burning and Itching.

I was sick in the fall of 1888 with a burning and itching so bad that in three weeks I was covered with a rash, and could not sleep nights or work days. Some doctors thought it might be salt rheum (eczema), and said they had never seen anything like it before. I received no help from any of them, or from any medicine that I could get hold of until I tried your Cuticura Remedies. After three weeks' use I was able to work, and kept getting better, until I am now entirely cured. I recommend them to all suffering with skin diseases.
C. E. OSMER, Taftsville, Vt.

Most Intense Itching.

I have used the Cuticura Remedies successfully for my baby, who was afflicted with eczema, and had such intense itching that he got no rest day or night. The itching is gone, and my baby is cured, and is now a healthy, rosy-cheeked boy.

✣THE HOLIDAY TRADE.✣

GREAT ATTRACTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS.

In our New Store we can make a much handsomer display of our Christmas goods than in the old place. All our fancy Christmas presents show off to a much better advantage, and in order to accommodate all our customers we have laid in an immense stock of all kinds of holiday goods.

We have a large stock of Plush Albums of different shades and sizes ranging from 50c to $3.50. Fancy Silk Plush Velvet Toilet sets, 75c to $2.00. Large Wax Dolls and China Dolls in all sizes from 5c up to 70c. Fancy Tea Sets for children, Boy's Drums, Guns and Pistols, Balls, A. B. C. Blocks, Horses, Carts, Lions, Elephants, Tigers, Dogs and Cats, Jumping Jacks, Music Boxes and a thousand other things for Christmas and New Years, and

CHRISTMAS TREE CANDLES

We have an immense supply and this year at extremly low prices, 15c a Box.

AND IN OUR TEA, COFFEE AND SUGAR DEPARTMENT

Our increase in them is very great since removing to the new place. The high price of Coffee is inducing a good many to use Teas, as there has been no advance in them, in fact Teas are lower now than they have ever been in the history of the trade, a good Tea can now be bought for 20c per pound, this is the same price as a pound of Rio Coffee and it will go twice as far. Our very best Tea is 50c per pound, just the same goods that sold a few years ago at $1.00 per pound. We also have a common Japan Tea as low as 10c per pound, this we sell little of, our best goods are so cheap that most of the trade prefer the best.

Young Hyson Tea 20c lb, choice 30c and 40c lb, best 50c lb.
Gun powder Tea, very choice, 30c lb, best 50c lb.
Oolong or Black Tea, 20c lb, 30c lb, best 50c lb.
Imperial Tea, choice 30c lb, very best 50c lb
Japan Tea, common 10c lb, choice 30c lb, best 50c lb.

The 30c Japan Tea can not be beat. In fact, it will make as good a draw as the 50c, and few can tell the difference. It is sweet, high flavored and a rich drawing Tea. It is a lot of 50 chests we purchased of a New York house in closing out at half the usual price. No charge for trying it. You will try two pounds in place of one when you once see it.

THE SUGAR MARKET

In consequence of the movements of the sugar trust, sugar has been subject to severe fluctuations and the rises in 90 days was equal to 40 per cent, but in the last 30 days the tendency has been downward, and we have reduced all goods 1c lb, from the highest point we quote now:

Crushed and Powdered, 8½c lb. Cut Loaf and Granulated, 8½c lb.
Standard Coffee A., 8c lb. Choice Yellow Extra C., 7c lb.

COFFEE, RIO AND JAVA.

The same influences that governed the sugar market has also controlled the coffee—viz—a coffee trust and the price has been advanced and maintained the last year, in the face of a large crop and abundant supplies. There is now a prospect of a declining market. We are still selling our coffee's 2c below the market prices:

Choice Green Rio, 20c lb; Best Old Government Java, 25c lb; Choice Roasted Rio, 23c lb; Best Roasted Package Sampson Brand, 24c lb; Jersey Coffee, Roasted in Packages, 24c lb; Leverings Coffee, Roasted in Packages, 24c.

CALIFORNIA FRUITS CANNED AND DRIED.

California Dried Apricots, 20c lb; California Peeled Peaches, 25c lb; California Nectaries, 20c lb; California Unpealed Peaches, 9c lb; California Silver Prunes, 15c lb; California Pitted Plums, 16c lb; California Canned Peaches, Extra Crawfords, 25c can; California Apricots, can, 20c; California Bartlett Pears, 25c can; California Green Gages, 22c can; California Egg Plums, 20c can; California White Cherries, 28c can.

FOR CHRISTMAS CAKE—Foreign and Domestic Dried Fruits.

ARTHUR STILL CHIEF.

He is Retained at the Head of the Engineers' Brotherhood--News From the Busy Centers.

The delegates who were in attendance at the national convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been in session for the past week at Denver, Col., have returned home. The closing hours of the session, when the chief of the Brotherhood was chosen, were interesting. The election occurred Tuesday.

The Ohio delegation named P. M. Arthur. This was followed by the nomination of Mr. Vroman, of North Platte, Neb., Mr. Vedder, of Sedalia, Mo., and Mr. Bellows, of Mississippi. An informal ballot was called for and the result showed that Arthur had the convention almost unanimously.

This great change in the feeling of the delegates is supposed to be the result of the recent trial and censure of Grand Officer Cavener, of Chicago. The first formal ballot decided the question by the following vote: Arthur, 313; Vroman, 101; Vedder, 1; Bellows, 1.

The convention adjourned at noon. On reassembling it proceeded to the election of third grand engineer. The result was not made public until night, when Chief Arthur stated that Joseph Sprague, of Canada, the incumbent, had been re-elected by a unanimous vote. Nominations were then made for second grand assistant engineer, and E. B. Dietrick, of Pennsylvania, was elected, and A. H. Butler, of Pittsburg, third grand assistant engineer. The next convention will be held at Pittsburg. George R. Dorety, of Toledo, was re-elected grand chaplin, and W. R. Buskey, of Bloomington, Ill., grand guide.

During the afternoon the convention appointed a committee to call upon John J. Hanrahan, of Chicago, vice grand master of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who was in the city, and request him to address the brotherhood. He appeared just before adjournment and delivered an interesting address, in which he heartily indorsed the question of federation.

OUR CLUB.

The car wheel moulders of the Bass works have an insurance and protective association of their own called "Our Club." When one of their members is taken sick, or injured, and for that reason is incapacitated from work, he is given a sick benefit of $10 a week. On death his widow or relatives is given $50 for funeral expenses.

The large majority of the moulders in the department belong to the club, and it is an excellent association. Last evening they held their annual meeting and elected the following officers: President, Charles Folmer; secretary, George Threadgal; treasurer, George Thompson; directors, Thos. Garnett, Frederick Kopp and Henry Threadgal.

CAR BUILDING.

The cars of the Pennsylvania railroad company at this point are built and put together at the east car shops and the material for them is furnished at the company's shops on Lafayette street. Every morning a train of four or five cars leaves the company's Lafayette street shops, loaded with every kind of material used in the construction of the cars, and is taken to the east yards for use.

This train is in charge of Engineer Eli Cramer, Fireman Kruze, Brakeman Reed and Conductor Davis, who are also the crew to the train that transports the employes of the east car shops from the the city to the works. This latter train leaves the Pitteburg depot every morning a little after 6 o'clock and returns again at night.

The car department of the company, Master Car Builder Graham tells us, employs some 300 men, and are now turning out five cars a day. Their capacity is greater than this but the lack of workmen and the difficulty in getting material prevents them from manufacturing a greater number. The department is very busy, and is pushing out work as rapidly as it can be done.

Few men understand their duties better than Mr. Graham, and the company is fortunate in having such an excellent official in charge of their car department at this point.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

Robert Castle, of White's Wheel works, is at Albion on business for the firm.

Will Lerch, machinist at the Bass works, is still off duty on account of one of "Job's comforters."

The Bass works have completed a Corliss engine for the electric light department of the prison at Michigan City.

Ticket Agent Douglass and Baggage Master Sunderland, of the Wabash, are now warming themselves with natural gas.

Conductor E. F. Betsberger is off duty on account of an injured hand and during his absence W. H. Grout is taking care of the local for him.

President Mackey, of the several Evansville lines, has not yet given up the hope of securing George Saul, general manager of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road, as general manager of the Mackey lines. On Saturday last the two officials had a lengthy conference.

H. Philley, of the East Pittsburg yards, had one of his hands quite badly crushed between the cars yesterday and will be kept from duty for a time.

Alexander Fay, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, had his thumb quite badly mashed yesterday afternoon while at work and is off duty in consequence.

J. M. Kieser will remove his soap works, known as the Fort Wayne soap works, on Glasgow avenue, to his new building which is now being erected for that purpose.

Newell Wilson, yardmaster of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road at Cadillac, has resigned to accept a position with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at Chicago.

Charles Scheffer, of White's wheel works, is off duty on account of injuries received by running a piece of steel into his hand, and John Tilbury is off duty also on account of an accident.

A party of officials of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road are on their tour of inspection over the road. The party is in charge of J. H. P. Hughart, and is accompanied by Mr. P. S. O'Rourke, superintendent of the southern division.

The theatrical managers had a good deal to say recently about the exorbitant rates—three cents per mile—charged by the railroad companies, but it is pretty generally known that special rates of two cents per mile are made to theatrical people in parties of ten or more by the majority of the railroads throughout the country. It is probably only where there is a lack of competition that the managers have to pay the regular three cents.

The time schedule of the special train which a few days ago carried the officers of the Pennsylvania system over the Vandalia shows that this train of five Pullmans cars was hauled from East St. Louis to Duquoin in ninety-two minutes. The distance is seventy-one miles. Stops were made at three junction points and to take coal and water. Those on board the train presented the engineer, the fireman, the conductor and brakeman with a $5 gold piece each.

One Fact

Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

In London the women are beginning to wear the single eye-glass.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE McCLELLAN Memorial Association, of Philadelphia, has approved the designs of Architects Paul J. Pelz and Henry J. Ellicott for a monument to General McClellan, to be erected on the south front of the City Hall. It will be a portrait figure of the General in bronze, heroic in size, with its granite pedestal, thirty feet in height. The cost is estimated at $30,000, and the monument is to be ready for unveiling at the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, Sept. 17, 1890.

"Having used Pond's Extract for a number of years, I fully endorse all you claim for it, but have used it successfully in a way I have never known you to recommend it in your advertisements. I have five children, and have used Pond's Extract with each one when teething, simply rubbing the swollen, fevered gums with it. It gives almost immediate relief, and seems to be so soothing, and evidently alleviates the pain. Please do not use my name publicly."

Than this New Compound of Tar for Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Wounds, Burns, Varicose Veins, Sores, Piles, Bronchitis, and Salt Rheum, Consumption. Eczema, and

TAR-OID must not be confound ed with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Skin Diseases are caused by impure blood, which is not true. They have their cause in a want of vital action in the skin. TAR-OID restores this action, hence it cures every form of Skin Disease, also sores, burns, etc. It is soothing and wonderfully healing—gratifying results follow in every case. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

The club will give a social hop November 7 to inaugurate the season's entertainments, which will be given every two weeks.

There is a reported case of destitution on Colerick street in which a family named Cole are said to be in great want. A lad of about twelve years made known such a state of circumstances, if they exist, by begging a gentleman to give him a nickel. The lad claimed to be son of a widowed mother named Cole, who has long been an invalid. He said he wanted money enough to buy bread. Trustee Brackenridge was notified and will investigate into the case.

The supreme court will have several important decisions to hand down during this and next week. It is possible the questions relative to the possession of state officers involved in the cases of Worrell against Peelle and Yancey against Gorby will be decided next week, but Wednesday or Thursday the decision relative to the constitutionality of the law increasing the liquor license may reach the record. The questions affecting the natural gas law may also be passed upon at this sitting of the court.

Miss Emma Nieman, of Warsaw, a sister of Charles Nieman, who died so suddenly at Atlanta, Ga., last week, has shown a letter written by Mr. J. F. Martin, of Atlanta, giving the full particulars of her brother's sudden demise. He did not die on the streets, as was first reported, but at a boarding house, where he had the kindest treatment from Mr. Martin and others. It seems that after a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, the first he had ever had, he slowly sank to his death. He was, as is well-known by the people of this place, in very feeble health; and indeed he went South in the hope of improving it, but this was not to be. A physician was called, and everything possible was done to alleviate his condition.

Mr. H. C. Hartman will leave shortly for Illinois on business.

Mr. C. G. Harris and bride returned yesterday from their wedding trip.

The concrete work on the new pavement will be finished sometime Friday.

The street commissioner will have 1,000 feet of hose for sewer-flushing purposes.

Mr. Britton Poulson has applied for a patent on a device for holding wrapping paper on the counter.

Secretary Bower, of the Y. M. C. A., will lead the meeting at the Congregational church to-night.

The Morton club reception which was to have been held to-morrow night has been postponed one week.

Mr. Frank X. Schuler, the insurance agent, went to Ohio to-day to attend a state meeting of the Ohio Farmer's company.

There was a runaway on Hanna street to-day and the gates at the railroad crossing were damaged. No injury is reported.

The new depot at the northside will soon reach completion. It is an oddly constructed building, attractive and comfortable.

Mrs. Eliza Hayden, mother of J. W. Hayden, with whom she makes her home, has returned from the west after an absence of one year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Freeman, of Bluffton, are in the city. They remain over until to-morrow and will attend the Hanlon entertainment this evening.

Mr. William Jackson, the switchman, has received a telegram announcing the serious sickness of his brother, at Lima, Ohio, and he will leave for that place Friday.

George H. Killian and Clara Gruber, John Auk and Fayette Baker, Frederick Rehling and Lucy Wetzel, John E. Bell and Minnie Gerard Wallace have been licensed to wed.

Mr. Charles Hosier, of L. O. Hull's, has gone to visit in the southern part of the state. He will come back in matrimonial harness, but the name of the young lady can not be learned.

The following real estate transfers were recorded to-day: William D. Gordon to Joseph Dwenger, lots 161, 162, 163 and 164, Williams' addition; Henry F. Beverforden to Joseph Dwenger, lot 170, Williams' addition.

Last night John Williams was arrested by Officer O'Connell and Henry Brown was arrested by Officer Lee, both for intoxication. The former paid and Brown, in lieu of fine, will pay the penalty for his indiscretion in jail.

Supt. Max Hoffman had a force commence the work of digging trenches on Fox street, in South Wayne, this afternoon, and the denizens of that street will have natural gas in a few days. The mains are also being extended on South Fairfield avenue.

Summit City lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W., will give an entertainment and oyster supper to-morrow evening at their inviting hall, 106 Calhoun street. The event is for the purpose of celebrating in a social way the twenty-first anniversary of the order.

About noon to-day a team belonging to Joseph Deininger, living three miles south of the city on the Piqua road, ran away. The animals were hitched to a hay wagon. The runaway was stopped at the corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets, without much damage and no injury.

A dispatch from Angola says: "Cholera is fast making away with the hogs of this county, hundreds dying every day, many farmers losing their entire droves. The disease is spreading to all parts of the county, and every effort to check its progress has so far proved unavailing, and pork raisers are greatly discouraged. It is estimated that the loss will be many thousands of dollars, and but for the unprecedented apple crop and good prices, it would leave the farmers in pretty bad shape."

Warsaw Times: "George Reiter, of Fort Wayne, was in town to-day, and gave us a pleasant call. George is well known to the people of this place, where he has many warm friends. He carried the gold-headed cane presented him by his Masonic friends at Fall River, Kansas, just as he left that place a few days ago, and which was handed him as he took the train for his home in Fort Wayne. It is a handsome ebony stick, with a suitably engraved gold head, and Mr. Reiter prizes it very highly. We were pleased to see him looking so well."

Fort Wayne is not the only place where the "Old Homestead" had the effect of working on the sympathies of an audience. The attraction has been at Indianapolis, where an unusual incident was noticeable in the closing act and it was an affecting one. Mrs. Luddington was singing "Rock-a-by, Baby," the scene representing the rocking of a little one to sleep, with the chorus by the quartet, when there was a burstir g s b of g ief from one of the boxes, and a la y hastily arose and withdrew from the house, with her face buried in her hands. She was recognized as a mother who had recently lost a child, and many eyes filled with sympathetic tears when the fact was whispered about.

MACKIE LOCATED.

He Assumes the Superintendency of the Manhattan Electric Plant--New Officers of the Jenney.

Mr. W. H. McGrath, who has superintended the Jenney electric light plant at Manhattan, N. Y., has arrived in the city and will at once assume the responsible duties of general superintendent in the immense works here.

Mr. McGrath is a man well informed and experienced in electrical matters and is a genial gentleman.

Mr. Brainard Rorison is also an acquisition to the official force. He was formerly superintendent of the Jenney plant at Indianapolis, but by reason of the recent consolidation and removal to this city, he will become assistant manager to Mr. R. T. McDonald.

The place vacated by Mr. McGrath, at Manhattan, N. Y., has been filled by Mr. Robert Mackie, who is attached to the recent scandal with Mrs. Frank Falker. Mr. Mackie will, therefore, not return to Fort Wayne as some had predicted.

Mr. John G. Blake, of Richmond, is in the city.

Mr. Will Smith, of Bluffton, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Foellinger, the New Haven druggist, was in the city last evening.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis, of 11 Hoffman street, is down with diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Lycurgas Bates will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their marriage to-night.

Dr. T. J. Dills, who is the attending physician for Mrs. R. C. Bell, says the lady is slowly improving.

Mr. Henry Schuler and Miss Mary Budd, of Marion township, were married in the city yesterday.

Miss Clara Zollars will entertain friends to-morrow evening at her pleasant home on Brackenridge street.

The house of Wm. Beverforden was burglarized last night and an axe, an overcoat and a set of bed-springs taken.

Mr. Will J. Clear will retire from his duties of mail carrier this week, probably to-morrow. His successor is not yet named.

Mr. Strauss, of the overall factory, had a finger severed to-day. Charles Freese, of Meyer Bro.'s, dressed the member.

Rev. Shackleford, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, is holding religious meetings at a point three miles out on the Illinois road.

Henry C. Clay had his room, on Superior street, robbed last night, by Harry Waltham, a colored man, of a gold watch, money and other valuables. The thief was arrested at Valparaiso and brought here.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

I once let a professional swordsman cut apples in two while I held them on my head and on the palm of my hand, and I'll never do it again, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The experience is too thrilling for the plain citizen who is not military in his tastes. I was with a show when the regular assistand of the swordsman went on a strike. The swordsman was in a dreadful fume at the thought of disappointing the crowd of spectators that night. He came behind the scenes at rehearsal and called for a volunteer. "I'll give $25 to the man who'll hold the apple for me," said he. No one volunteered, and I daringly put in my oar. "I'll do it if you give me a rehearsal." "No rehearsal" said he, emphatically; "it will shatter your nerves so that you'll tremble like an aspen leaf when you come out at the performance."

So I went out when night came, the upper part of my body covered with a thin silk vest. It was cold anyway, and I trembled abominably. He saw it, but said nothing to me. I held the apple on my extended hand, and it shook. I could feel it shaking, and felt ashamed, but I couldn't control the nervousness. I turned away my head; he made a few rapid feints, and I knew by the applause that the apple had fallen. I didn't feel the blade at all as it cut through. Then I knelt down and he put another apple on my neck. I knew this was really dangerous, for if his hand slipped he might decapitate me. I shut my eyes. In a second, which seemed an hour to me, I felt a thin cold line touch my neck, and there was more applause.

"In that instant I thought of Mme. Roland and the guillotine, and came near fainting. He told me to get up, and I followed him, feeling rather dazed, to the dressing-room. I thought I must be cut, the touch of the steel had been so plainly felt, but the looking-glass showed me that there was not a mark on me. But I was awfully pale. The next night we got a regular man to hold the apple."

THE DIFFERENCE.

"My dear," said an impecunious, but affectionate young lawyer to his young wife, at he put his arm around her waist, "what is the difference between me and a dollar bill."

"A dollar," answered his wife, "is worth one hundred cents, while you are not worth one cent. Is that it, William?

"No," he said in a hurt tone, "one is a legal tender bill, and the other is a tender legal Bill."

A CHILD KILLED.

An Infant of Frank Horn Killed and the Mother Injured.

Last Sunday evening at dusk, Mr. Frank Horn, a resident of Springfield township, was driving home from church, accompanied by his wife and child.

The vehicle struck an obstruction, upsetting the wagon and throwing the occupants to the ground. Their little 14-months old child was so badly injured that death followed soon. The mother was also injured and may not recover.

"Gath's" Expressions.

My attention was lately directed to perhaps the largest Cyclopædia Biography of Americans that has ever been issued and I find it to consist of living persons mainly, although the dead of America were also included; but, as one of the editors said to me, "the people would rather know something of the living great men than too much about the dead great men." * * *

Whenever I open a page of this interesting work I am tempted to write a whole letter from the thick-springing suggestions which come up. * *

It gives the best biography of Blaine I have seen, being particularly complete as to all his votes and measures in congress and the Senate. * * *

Blaine gets in this Cyclopædia about nine columns of matter and Henry Clay, in the same volume, gets about the same.

It is not unfair to conclude that Clay and Blaine will stand very close together, as great favorites, with a vast following, who came only short of the greatest American honor. * * * * *

It is said of William Cullan Bryant in this work, that he was the only American author who could afford to have three homes at once—a town house in New York, a country house on Long Island, and his family homestead in Massachusetts. * * * * * * * *

Did you know that Q. A. Gilmore, the engineer-general, was born in Ohio? He went to Norfolk Academy and Elyria High School, and started in life as a poet. Hearing him read one of his poems at school, a member of congress, who had a gizzard, nominated him forthwithwith as a cadet to West Point.

ENGLISH MONEY!

British Capitalists Seeking to Control the American Patent Medicine Firms.--The St. Louis Brewery Deal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—An English syndicate with several millions back of it, is trying to acquire the proprietary rights to certain American patent medicines. These properties are regarded as even more profitable than the breweries.

The principal agent of the syndicate is Thos. H. Wagstaff, a broker at No. 18 Broadway. Many proprietors of patent medicines in this city have been approached by him. One proprietor says that Mr. Wagstaff recently offered to purchase his business for the syndicate. He agreed to pay $500,000 for every 10 per cent. of profits received during the past five years. Wagstaff declined to give the names of those interested, but says the syndicate has several million dollars to invest, and has commissioned him to look into the patent medicine business in this city.

"In case the syndicate should buy the medicines," continued Wagstaff, "the present proprietors will be retained as managers for a certain time and it is almost certain that each business will continue to be managed by Americans. The English do not intend to go into the business of patent medicines themselves; all they desire is a safe investment for their money." Proprietors do not believe that the English capitalists intend to retain Americans as their managers. On the contrary, they are convenced that the Englishmen intend to run the business themselves.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—It is reported on good authority that the deal between the Associated Brewers of St. Louis and the combination of eastern and foreign capitalists, commonly denominated "an English syndicate," has practically been concluded, and there remains only the formal signing of papers of transfer to make the sale of all the brewing properties controlled by the association an accomplished fact. The capitalization of the association is $3,250,000. The association includes every brewery in the city except the Anheuser-Busch, Lemp's and the Obert breweries.

INSANITY AND PENSIONS.

A Ruling of the Pension Office Interesting to Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Assistant Secretary Bussey has over-ruled the pension office and directed that a pension be granted to Bernard Brunner for insanity, originating during his service in the late war as a private in Co. K, 123d Ohio volunteers. He was discharged for insanity on August 12, 1863.

The application was rejected by the pension office on the ground that the disability existed prior to enlistment. General Bussey finds from additional evidence that Brunner at no time in his army service exhibited more marked indications of mental alienation than a reticent manner, fondness for solitude and the like.

The special examiner says: "There is no doubt of Brunner's insanity being of army origin."

Commenting on the facts presented General Bussey concludes: "Admitting that there was a predisposition to insanity and that the cause or causes which sufficed to destroy his mind would not have effected a stronger intellect, that fact cannot be pleaded a justification for denying him a pension.

"It is a well settled article of practice in the adjudication of pension claims that an unusually susceptibility to some form of disease existing before enlistment is no bar to pension if the disease did not develop until after the claimant's admission to the service. The rule is essentially just. The government took this man apparently sound and returned him to civil life manifestly unsound."

General Bussey directs, therefore, that Brunner, through his guardian, Josephine Fishor, be granted a pension for insanity.

BUILDING WRECKED.

A Costly Explosion at Bellaire, Ohio, This Morning.

BELLAIRE, O., Oct. 30.—One of the large boilers of the Bellaire blast furnace exploded this morning, with terrible force, cracking two other boilers in the main battery, and wrecking the boiler rooms. The south end of the nail factory was entirely demolished, windows were broken in the adjoining buildings, and the wreck was scattered over an area of one hundred yards. The damage to the mill and adjoining property is $200,000. No one was injured.

LITTLE TICKS

Telling the Day's News as it Comes From all Quarters.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 30.—Two well known citizens of Petersburg left here yesterday on the south-bound train, with a view to fighting a duel near Weldon, N. C. They were accompanied by their seconds. The trouble was satisfactorily adjusted before the duelling ground was reached, and the parties returned here in the afternoon. The affair was kept very quiet.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 30.—It was stated Monday that fully 20,000 people were destitute in North Dakota. Yesterday Mr. Marvin, chairman of the relief committee, stated that he is convinced from information received that it was nearer 20,000 families, representing a total of 100,000 people. The trouble is due to the failure of crops for the past three years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Union Pacific-Chicago and Northwestern has purchased control of the Chicago and Alton road. It now controls 27,000 miles of road, and represents $864,952,000 worth of stock.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 30.—John L. Manning, ex-governor of South Carolina, died at his plantation near Camden yesterday.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30.—George L. Calloway, of Greenville, S. C., died early this morning at the house of W. O. McDonell here, of peritonitis.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 30.—A report is in circulation here that Archduke John Salvatin, of Austria, who has voluntarily resigned his civil and military rank will shortly join the staff of the New York Herald.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Oct. 30.—The largest discovery of zinc ore, known as dry bone, ever made in the vicinity is reported on land owned by Morris Cavanaugh, on the Platte river, four miles from Potosi, Wis. The vein is said to to be ten feet wide, seven feet thick and three-quarters of a mile long. The quality is of the best.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The American horse show at the exposition building was opened to the public at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There are more than 1,000 horses in the building, valued at $500,000. The exhibit to-day will be of draft horses.

BEFORE THE SQUIRES.

Several Minor Criminal Cases Up in Court To-day.

Last evening 'Squire Scarlett fined John Cullars, who is barkeeper for Joseph Baum's "My Place" saloon on East Columbia street, $1 and costs, amounting to $11.80, for Sabbath desecration.

To-day the same 'squire fined John George Strodel for the same offense. The fine amounted to $12.30.

The 'squire would not divulge the name of the person who filed the affidavit.

'Squire Ryan to-day fined Harry Kramer $1 and costs for provoking Mary J. Hirsch. The parties live on Melita street.

An affidavit was filed against Mary Hirsch for provoking Mary Kramer. A counter affidavit was filed by Mary Hirsch against Mary Kramer. The last cases came up this afternoon.

The case of Elizabeth Hazzard for malicious trespass on a charge preferred by Patrick Conney, was continued until Saturday.

Weather.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—For Indiana: Rain; stationary temperature, except warmer, easterly winds.

ONE WAY TO GET GOOD MILK.

It was quite early when the Arcounder journeyed homeward the other morning. Day was just breaking and the milk wagons rumbled noisily over the pavements. One of these early workers was stopped before a house when two "gentlemen in hard luck" approached it. Saluting the milkman one said, producing a tin pail. "Gimme two quarts o' milk." As the milkman took the pail he continued, "It's for the city chemist."

"Sh!" interposed his fellow tramp, "he said you mustn't tell who it's for."

But the milkman's eyes lit up with a knowing look as he filled the pail with the choicest cream. So elated, in fact, was he with his own supposed cunning, that he did not think about payment until the two were out of sight. A few blocks farther the Arounder came upon the co-laborers regaling on rolls and cream. "We had to get up durned early to work it," was the remark he heard.—Buffalo Courier.

THERE is a pond in New Jersey where the sacred lotus of the East has become established and proved itself hardy, although in the winter the surface of the water is frozen over.

A DAY OF WRECKS!

A Disastrous Collision on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Road--Other Wrecks.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—About 6 o'clock this morning a freight train east bound on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad broke down near Beaver Falls station. The limited express was flagged, and to avoid delay, backed up to cross over to another track. Another freight train in the rear of the limited was unobserved and a disastrous collision occurred.

The rear platform and truck of the observation car on the limited was badly broken, and the engine, tender and one car of live stock on the freight, with which it collided, were demolished. The engineer and fireman on the freight jumped from their engine and escaped with slight injuries. The front brakeman on the freight train was caught and instantly killed. The tracks were blocked and traffic delayed several hours.

OTTAWA, Ill., Oct. 30—The St. Joseph cannon-ball train on the Rock Island road ran into the rear of the Denver express at Seneca last evening, wrecking the dining car on the Denver express and the engine, tender and baggage car of the St. Joseph train. Major T. C. Gilson, of this city, an unknown lady and the engineer of the St. Joseph train were quite seriously injured.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 30.—A passenger train on the New Jersey Central road was run from the main track to a side-track by a misplaced switch in the yard here this morning and collided with a coal train. An engine and eight coal cars were badly wrecked and two baggage cars lost their running gear. The passenger cars did not have the rails. Fortunately no one was injured.

A GOSHEN WRECK.

GOSHEN, Ind., Oct. 30.—The limited vestibule train No. 1, west-bound, on the Lake Shore road, was wrecked at Wawaka this morning. The entire train was thrown on its side and every truck torn off. A wrecking train, with railroad officials and physicians, have gone to the scene. Various reports are rife as to the loss of life and injuries to passengers, but the truth cannot yet be learned.

ANOTHER ONE.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 30.—A collision occurred about midnight last night on the Norfolk and Western railroad, between an eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight train. They came together between Liberty and Thaxtons. Both trains were wrecked. One passenger reported killed and many injured. The firemen and engineers of both trains are said to have been killed.

STILL ANOTHER ONE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 30.—The Baltimore and Ohio passenger train which left Washington at 4:20 yesterday afternoon, ran into an engine and twenty freight cars near Canton, while running at a very high speed. The freight train was completely wrecked. The passenger engine was badly smashed up. It was derailed, and came within a foot of going over a steep embankment. The passengers were badly shaken up, but no one was injured. It is claimed that the freight train displayed no lights and had no business on the track.

A PITCHED BATTLE

Expected Between the Hatfield and McCoy Gangs.

MILTON, W. Va., Oct. 30.—A hundred and fifty men, nearly equally divided between the Hatfield and McCoy factions, were massed some ten or twelve miles south of Hamlin last night and a bloody battle to-day is inevitable. The McCoys are intrenched in the hills and at last reports the Hatfields had discovered their whereabouts and were marching, about sixty strong, to attack them, but nothing could be done before morning.

Joseph Ungnarhart, a Hatfield man, was murdered last week by Green McCoy, and Milton Haley, who were both shot from ambush within two hours. Both factions have since been making preparations for the fight.

Recently in the circuit court a verdict was rendered in favor of Mary Shondel, giving her a judgment of $1,000 against Anthony Feather for a breach of promise. The defendant has filed his answer and will contest the case.

Mr. John Baker, driver for the United States Express company, took Barrett, the murderer, to the northern prison yesterday.

THIS afternoon Judge O'Rourke married Frank Orwig, of North Baltimore, Ohio, and Nellie Ramsdottom, of Monroeville.

AFTER VALUABLE LAND.

Ninety-Three Acres of Property Sought After at Big Money.

Mr. E. Silberly, who was looking around the city yesterday in the interest of a Chicago real estate syndicate, made an offer, it is stated, on the Anthony Wayne park, and adjoining property, of ninety-three acres.

He claims that Messrs. Bash, Paul and Ellison of this city, have already negotiated for the land at the price of $60,000, for the purpose of sub-dividing and making into useful real estate.

Mr. Silberly has already made several inferior deals here and will shortly return.

AN ICE HOUSE.

Fred Helling is Erecting a Beauty Spot for the City Park.

Mr. Fred Helling, the ice dealer, today had work commenced on his new ice house adjoining the north side city park.

The ground the building occupies is about 150x300, and he offered it to the city for the sum of $2,000.

The offer was rejected by the finance committee. As a result, a barn structure is being erected which will be an eyesore to anybody who may visit the park and a disgrace to the surroundings.

A HAND WASHED.

James Fay, a Switchman, Meets With an Accident.

Last night James Fay, a switchman in the yards of the Pennsylvania company, had his right hand mashed between the bumpers so that the company surgeon found it necessary to amputate the thumb and index finger.

Fay is at the St. Joe hospital, where he will remain until it is learned whether further amputation will have to be made.

ANOTHER ONE.

William Connors, of the Pittsburg machine shop, had the index finger of his right hand severed by accident today. He is a son of Mike Conners, the fireman at the Seventh ward engine house, and lives at 43 Charles street.

A PLUNGE TO DEATH.

Justin McCarty, of Columbia City, Falls Under the Wheels.

Last evening Justin McCarty, a brickmaker of Columbia City, was in the city pleasantly chatting with friends. In less than half an hour afterward his mangled remains, with a leg and arm severed from the body, were conveyed to the St. Joe hospital, where the man breathed his last at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

McCarty jumped on freight train No. 75, homeward bound, and when near the Lindenwood cemetery he either fell or was thrust from the top of the train, falling under the train, which ran over the unfortunate man's left leg below the knee and left arm below the elbow. These injuries, with the various bruises on the man's body, caused fatal results as stated.

The wife of the unfortunate man arrived last night and had the remains sent to Columbia City to-day for interment.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

They Cheer the Stars and Stripes and Kiss the Faded Flag of the Confederacy.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 30.—Fifteen hundred Confederate veterans assembled in O'Brien's opera house yesterday and organized a state association. The object is to raise money by popular subscription to build a home for disabled and homeless Confederate veterans. Telegrams and letters from Jefferson Davis, Joe E. Johnston, Wade Hampton and others were read.

The stage was decorated with the national colors on the right and the torn and faded confederate flags on the left. The veterans cheered the stars and stripes and kissed the faded flags of the confederacy reverently. Gen. E. W. Peters was elected president of the association, with a vice-president from each congressional district.

A BOY BURNED.

A Son of Amos Murphy Burned With Melted Lead.

To-day, a twelve-year-old son of Mr. Amos Murphy, the painter, residing at 336 East Wayne street, was badly burned about the lower limbs by the upsetting of a caldron containing melted lead.

The lad was watching the workmen engaged in laying natural gas mains at the corner of Oak and Ohio street, when the accident happened. He was carried to his home and now suffers great agony.

MISSIONARY MASSACRED.

Rev. Mr. Savage and a Number of Teachers Murdered by the Natives of New Guinea.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The London missionary society has received news of the massacre, by natives, of Rev. Mr. Savage, a number of native teachers, and the crew of the society's vessel, the Mary, in New Guinea. The cause of the uprising is not known. Mr. Savage was sent out by the society some years ago and had been a very successful missionary. The government of Queensland has sent a steamer to the scene of the massacre.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Dr. Schweinfurth, in a letter published here to-day, states that letters from Emin Bey have reached Captain Wissman which justify the expectation that Stanley and Emin will soon arrive at Mswapa.

DUBLIN, Oct. 30.—A number of the defendants on trial at Gweedore charged with being implicated, to a more or less extent, in the murder of Police Inspector Martin, were to-day adjudged guilty and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The Figaro announces that Prince Murat left Paris yesterday, that Miss Caldwell sails for New York Saturday and that the marriage is off.

BURNES' CONFESSION.

The Officers at Winnipeg Looking After His Truth.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 30.—Assistant State's Attorney Baker, of Chicago, was yesterday closeted for a long time with ex-Convict Heffer, and is said to be convinced that Heffer's story regarding Burke's confession is true.

Heffer, however, said he had no intention of appearing as a witness in the Cronin case, unless he was well paid for his services.

Mr. Baker also had an interview with Gillette, the Fargo forger, who was another of Burke's confederates in the jail. Gillette was yesterday sentenced to thirty years in the penitentiary, but the authorities have agreed to hold him in the jail here for a day or two, in order to give Mr. Baker an opportunity to secure a sworn statement from him.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The crowd that gathered about Judge McConnell's court this morning was larger than at any time yet. The cause of the increased interest was the expected revelations from the Clan-na-Gael witness, Stephen Golleran, whose examination was to be resumed this morning.

In the absence of Colleran, Dennis O'Connor was called. In reply to questions by Judge Longenecker, he testified that he had been a member of the Clan-na-Gael twenty-one years. He was at the meeting of Camp 20, February 8. He heard Andrew Foy "make a few remarks," but no speech. "No Clan-na-Gael man made speeches; only remarks."

THE BENDER MURDER

Recalled by a Case on Trial at Niles, Mich.

NILES, Mich., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Eliza Davis was discharged yesterday on the charge of grand larceny. During the trial many facts were adduced tending to show that Mrs. Monroe (Mrs. Davis' mother) was connected with the Bender murders, in Kansas. By her own admissions Mrs. Monroe has had seven husbands and a number of them have mysteriously disappeared. Her daughter, Eliza, insists positively that Mrs. Monroe is old Mrs. Bender.

Much interest was manifested and many blood curdling and horrible revelations were brought out during the examination. Officers from Kansas have been in the state for ten days investigating the case and are satisfied that they have at last discovered the notorious Bender family. A requisition has been asked for and as soon as it arrives the parties will be taken to LaBette county, Kansas, for trial.

ANOTHER FAIR.

The Father Edwards Council Have a Successful Event.

Commencing Monday evening and closing last night the Father Edward Council, C. B. L., held at the hall opposite St. Paul's Catholic church, a fair and festival that was a success socially and financially.

The elegant gold headed cane which was up for the most popular president of the St. Julian council and the Father Edward council resulted in awarding the prize to the latter, the vote standing thus: Frank Brucker, 1,501; Jacob Hartman, 837½.

The receipts of the fair will go toward purchasing new uniforms for the Father Edward council.

REMORSE TO LEAD.

Frank Rhodes Discouraged Through Sickness, Commits Suicide.

Frank Rhodes, a man about forty-five years old, committed suicide about 10:15 o'clock this morning, by shooting himself.

Rhodes for six years past has been a resident of this city and for a long time has been employed in the Muncie section gang under Foreman John Cashman.

He boarded with Mrs. M. E. Blount, at 5 North Calhoun street, in Bloomingdale, whither a SENTINEL reporter went upon hearing the news of the attempted suicide, which resulted so successfully.

The reporter entered a neatly furnished sitting room, from which access was had to a bed-room. From this apartment was emitted the noise of the death rattle that told too plainly of the fate of the man who a few minutes before had sent a bullet through his brain.

Coroner Kessler and Dr. Charles Stalls, who were at the bedside over the unconscious form, probed and found the bullet lodged in the brain. They pronounced the wound fatal.

Mrs. Blount gave her version of the affair by stating that Rhodes had been confined to the bed for three weeks past; that about 10:15 o'clock this morning she heard a noise as though the window to the bedroom had fallen, but which in fact, as she discovered a few moments later, was the report of the 32-calibre revolver, with which weapon the man had deliberately taken his life.

The woman stated that Rhodes was an honest and industrious character.

The suicide is attributed to the discouraging situation in which the man was placed. He had no known relatives, worked hard to eke out a meagre existence and when misfortune came he was too miserable to endure it.

A report from the man's bedside at noon to-day was to the effect that he would hardly survive the day.

He was a single man and had no wife, children or other relatives.

TO MARK HIS GRAVE.

A Monument to be Erected on the Grave of Father O'Leary.

To the friends of Father O'Leary:

The undersigned have been selected by Father Brammer as a committee to arrange for the erection of a monument to mark the resting place of the late Father O'Leary.

No personal appeal will be made, but all who feel so disposed are requested to hand their contribution to Mr. L. Jocquel, the treasurer of the committee, who will receipt for the same. It is earnestly desired that contributions be handed in early so that the purpose in hand may be consummated within the next sixty days.

The subscription book is now open at Mr. Jocquel's store, at No. 168 Calhoun street.

REFORM SCHOOL REPORT.

Comparative Showing by Counties--Work Done by the Boys.

The superintendent of the reform school for boys yesterday made his semi-annual report of the accounts due from the various counties of the state for one-half the expenses of maintenance and instruction of the boys at the school. The estimated annual expense (per capita) of each boy is $120. Each county pays one-half this amount. The amount due from counties for the past six months is $18,037.25. In that time there were eighty-one counties that had representatives in the school. The following counties were not represented: Franklin, Orange, Starke, Jasper, Marshall, Parke, Union, Ripley, Newton, Ohio and Scott.

There were 504 boys reported as having been in the school during this period. The counties having the largest population had the most boys. First in rank was Marion with 101; then came Vigo with 41, Decatur 22, and Allen 20.

The annual report to the governor will show the reform school free from all debt, and otherwise in first-class condition. The new steam plant is approaching completion and will be used this winter. The crops were exceptionally bountiful and the health of the boys good. The board of control, consisting of Judge Lewis Jordan, of Indianapolis, L. A. Barnett, of Danville, and Colonel A. D. Vanosdol, of Madison, will meet on Saturday. Superintendent Charlton is proud of the work done during the year.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30, 1889.

To-morrow night is All Hallowe'en. THE SENTINEL has something to say about it in another column.

AT a meeting of the Pittsburg Window Glass Manufacturers' association it was decided to advance the price of glass 5 per cent. This is the second advance of 5 per cent. this fall.

THE Republicans talked a month or two ago about carrying New Jersey. Now they think that General Grubb, the republican candidate for governor, will be able to reduce' the democratic majority to the lowest point in the history of the state.

FRANK SHANK, who was sentenced to a term of seven years in the southern prison in 1888, was paroled by the governor yesterday. Shank was convicted of trying to kill his sweetheart, Miss Lulu Penny, of East Germantown, Wayne county, in a fit of jealousy. He has contracted consumption since his confinement began, and the warden of the prison telegraphed the governor that his death is a matter of a few days at most, and recommends that he be sent home to die.

A MAD MONARCH.

One of the saddest spectacles which it is possible to conceive is that presented by the prisoner of Furstenried, the mad King of Bavaria. Tall and almost as gigantic in stature as his brother, the late King Ludwig, his appearance is sufficient to startle any one who sees him for the first time. His hair is long and unkempt, and his bushy brown beard reaches down below his waist. There is a kind of weird, wild look in his eyes, the gaze of which remains steadfastly fixed straight ahead into empty space.

The only person who can succeed in bringing a gleam of intelligence to his face is the sixty-year-old Madame Marie, who was his nurse when a child and who has now become one of the principal members of his household. She is the only one who is permitted to speak to him, everybody else being under strict orders not to address a single word to him or to take the slightest notice of him when he walks about the park.

He is invariably dressed in black broadcloth, and requires a new suit almost every day; for, owing to his strange objection to the use of either pocket-handkerchiefs or table napkins, his coat-sleeves and coat-tails have to do service for both. For hours he will stand, gesticulate wildly, and talk to the imaginary personage created by his fantasy, and then again for several days together he will remain in such a state of lethargy and lifelessness that his physicians become afraid that he will pass away without even their becoming aware of it. All day long, except when overcome by one of his bi-weekly or tri-weekly fits of apathy, he will puff away at cigarettes, of which he smokes almost a hundred a day.

It is impossible to predict how much longer he will live. He may drag on his present miserable existence for years; while, on the other hand, it is likely that the failure of the natural functions of the body may bring on a malady which will carry him off in a few days. As his madness is of an altogether incurable nature, his death can only be regarded in the light of a happy release.

OUR TRADE WITH MEXICO.

In an interview on Mexican import taxes, Hon. Thomas Ryan, minister of the United States to Mexico, said: "A decree has been issued, to take effect the first of the month, removing live stock and fresh meats from the free list and imposing a heavy tariff. The tariff on fresh meats will be five cents a pound, which is practically prohibitory. The tariff on live stock is scarcely less. There are no statistics showing the value of exports from the United States into Mexico, but their volume is large, and, to the best of my judgment, the balance of the trade has been several millions in our favor. The result of moving live stock and fresh meats from the free list will be injurious to the Mexican railroads. It is to be regretted that no figures are available to show our Mexican exports. The law provides merely for collating figures of maritime commerce, and is antiquated. It should be amended by congress at an early day.

"Mexico is a wonderful country; wonderful in people, in climate, in resources and possibilities. The United States pays out $100,000,000 in cash annually for products which Mexico could furnish us, and would take in exchange the products of our manufactories and enterprises. I believe that even a limited measure of reciprocity would, within five years, develop a Mexican commerce of $100,000,000 annually. It is to be hoped that both nations will awake to the opportunities and advantages of closer relations. Mexico wants machinery, agricultural implements, cloths, tools, meats, live stock—everything we can furnish here, in fact. The Mexicans are a wealthy people. What they want they have. The country raises a revenue of $30,000,000. Of this, $20,000,000 is by a tariff on imports. Yet she would be willing to sacrifice a part of this, undoubtedly, to secure reciprocal relations with the United States."

ALL HALLOWE'EN.

Which Occurs To-morrow Night. Calls up Memories Dear—Its Observance in This City.

The average school boy does not need to be told that to-morrow night is Hallowe'en. Ever since the cabbage plant developed into the full grown head he has had his eye fixed on the date and he knows it comes on the night of October 31. He calls it "cabbage night," and to him it means a time when fun runs riot and he is given the privilege and the right of indulging in all sorts of pranks.

When darkness has crept over the earth he joins his companions and they are out for a lark, and nothing is too mischeivous or daring for them to undertake. They know where the cabbage is to be got. Its location has been a sort of an "open secret" with them for weeks and having secured a supply they make their rounds, bumping doors on their way, lifting gates off hinges, tying strings across the sidewalk and perpetrating all the mischief that youthful ingenuity can invent.

The occasion is probably, in this respect, not what it used to be. The older readers of THE SENTINEL well remember how they used to celebrate it in the days of long ago and they can tell you tales of mischief done in their country village homes that would startle for their boldness and danger the boys of to-day.

That was a time when the blue-coated "cop" did not stand on every corner. The only individual they had to watch was the town marshal, and he was an easy going sort of an individual whose vigilance was easy to evade. The boys of to-day would be arrested and placed in the lock-up for doing what the boys of twenty and thirty years ago did on Hallowe'en, and it is a pleasure to recall these times, and the memories of many will be refreshed as the setting of to-morrow's sun ushers in Hallowe'en.

It is an ancient and honored festivity that falls on October 31. It has always been popular in Great Britain, particularly in the north country, out of which have come so many quaint and curious customs. The Scots and their descendants in America take especially kindly to the old festivals and their proper observance, and this one of Hallowe'en, the virgil of Hallomas, or All Saints Day, is remembered and will be celebrated everywhere to-morrow night in a becoming manner.

The beliefs and practices of the young men and maidens, described by Robbie Burns in his poem on Hallowe'en, have passed away, and have been replaced by the less romantic, but quite as enjoyable festivities of the fireside, such as ducking for apples in tubs of water, cracking jokes and nuts about the hearth, making mirth and candy, and playing the innumerable innocent games that form so much of the recreation of the Scotch people.

Many of these observances have been translated from the hills and glens, the cottages and clachans of Highlands and Lowlands, and will be repeated to-morrow night, even till "the wee sma' hours agant the twal."

In this city Hallowe'en will be celebrated by the boys and in the "fun" of the night cabbage will play no small part, despite the vigilance of the police. But to the Scotchmen it will be the most joyous occasion. Their Robbie Burns has made it dear to them and amusements appropriate to the occasion will be indulged in. The Caledonians will meet in their hall on Calhoun street and give an interesting program of song and literary exercises. Rev. Dr. Moffat will deliver an address, supper will be served and the occasion will close with a dance, in which all the lads and lassies of the city will participate.

GRAY AND SISTINE MADONNA.

The Ex-Governor Mistook Her Portrait For That of a Relative of a Fort Wayne Man.

A Washington letter in the New York Tribune has the following, which is of local interest:

An Indiana man who was here this week told a neat story about Gov. Isaac P. Gray. It seems that the democratic governor of Indiana was given a dinner lately by a well known lawyer of Fort Wayne. Half a dozen prominent citizens were invited to meet him, all of whom were loyal democrats. After dinner the guests adjourned to the library, where the host had some fair imitations of the "old masters." The governor strolled around the room, smoking his cigar and looking at the paintings. Before one he stopped, evidently pleased. He put up his eye-glass, and after an admiring inspection, turned to his host:

"Ah-h ——," speaking his host's name, "this is an amiable, pleasant-faced lady. Ah-h, relative of yours?"

"That's the Sistine Madonna, governor," replied the host, indulgently, as he looked nervously at the other occupants of the room.

"Hegh? Sister——? I didn't quite catch the name. Now that I look at it closely," again adjusting his glass, "it does resemble you slightly, but I didn't know that your father had any daughters. May I ask, is your sister——, ah, your sister——, didn't quite catch the name, is she still living?"

The host and his other guests were convulsed, but Isaac was so intent on the picture that he did not notice it, and among them they managed to let the governor down easy without giving him any more definite information about the Madonna's relationship to the host.

"A truly amiable face," mused the governor, pocketing the glass. "My friend here is blessed in having such a female relative."

"After he left, the host and his guests made a compact not to let the story go beyond the library walls, but as the host himself is a raconteur of tales, as well as a good democrat, it leaked out, and now, from one end of Indiana to another, the initiated know the story of Gov. Isaac P. Gray and the Sistine Madonna.

AN UNCONFIRMED RUMOR.

The Brush Electric Light Absorbed by the Thomson-Houston.

The Western Electrician, of Chicago, regarded as authority on all electric matters, contains an account of a deal which will be interesting to Fort Wayne, moreover as it is claimed the Thomson-Houston company, practical owners of the Jenney works here, have absorbed the Brush light system.

The Electrician says: "The report has been general during the past few days that the control of the Brush Electric company of Cleveland, has been acquired by the Thomson-Houston company of Boston. Investigation confirms the reports in so far as the sale of the Brush company goes. The control of this company has recently been acquired by Boston parties. The autonomy of the Brush company is not to be disturbed in the slightest. Its principal office will still be in Cleveland and its factories and business will be conducted as heretofore. The Brush company is the pioneer company in the electric light business and has grown to mammoth proportions. It is understood that it took $3,200,000 to purchase a bare control of the stock. The transfer of the control of this company is, therefore, of high importance, and the first reports concerning it were not believed by electrical people generally. Investigation, however, shows the rumor to be true, so far as the main facts of the transfer go."

James S. Murphy, M. D., Company's Shops, N. C., writes:—"I sell a great deal of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, for every one who tries it, likes it."

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy." Of course! Why those old duffers suffered horribly with aches and pains; and didn't and couldn't know that Salvation Oil would cure them.

A GORGEOUS PRODUCTION.

Standing Room at a Premium at the Temple Last Evening.

Citizens of Fort Wayne and vicinity were well represented in the Masonic audience that assembled to witness the second presentation of Hanlon Bros.' famous scenic spectacle, "New Fantasma," last evening. The plays furnished the theatre-going public by this popular play-house seem to grow better with age and the performance last night was in every way commensurate with the large crowd. "Fantasma" as seen in this city on previous occasions was suburb, but the production as now given by the Hanlons is superior to anything that is now occupying the attention of the Thespian-loving public. The plot is a thin structure in which an opportunity is given for some very clever tricks, specialties, etc., and the decapitation last evening seemed to thrill the audience with horror, as the head of Pico rolled down upon the stage.

"Fantasma" will be repeated to-night for the last time and every person enjoying a huge laugh should attend.

"If a woman is pretty,
To me 'tis no matter,
Be she blonde or brunette,
So she lets me look at her."

An unhealthy woman is rarely, if ever, beautiful. The peculiar diseases to which so many of the sex are subject are prolific causes of pale, sallow faces, blotched with unsightly pimples, dull, lustreless eyes and emaciated forms. Women so afflicted can be permanently cured by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and with the restoration of health comes that beauty which, combined with good qualities of head and heart, makes women angels of loveliness. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers that it will give satisfaction in every case or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

SKINS ON FIRE

CURED BY CUTICURA.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your Cuticura Remedies, and after using three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, with Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.
ISAAC H. GERMAN, Wurtsboro, N. Y.

Burning and Itching.

I was sick in the fall of 1888 with a burning and itching so bad that in three weeks I was covered with a rash, and could not sleep nights or work days. Some doctors thought it might be salt rheum (eczema), and said they had never seen anything like it before. I received no help from any of them, or from any medicine that I could get hold of until I tried your Cuticura Remedies. After three weeks' use I was able to work, and kept getting better, until I am now entirely cured. I recommend them to all suffering with skin diseases.

Most Intense Itching.

I have used the Cuticura Remedies successfully for my baby, who was afflicted with eczema, and had such intense itching that he got no rest day or night. The itching is gone, and my baby is cured, and is now a healthy, rosy-checked boy.

Our increase in them is very great since removing to the new place. The high price of Coffee is inducing a good many to use Teas, as there has been no advance in them. In fact Teas are lower now than they have ever been in the history of the trade, a good Tea can now be bought for 20c per pound, this is the same price as a pound of Rio Coffee and it will go twice as far. Our very best Tea is 50c per pound, just the same goods that sold a few years ago at $1.00 per pound. We also have a common Japan Tea as low as 10c per pound, this we sell little of, our best goods are so cheap that most of the trade prefer the best.

Young Hyson Tea 20c lb, choice 30c and 40c lb, best 50c lb.
Gun powder Tea, very choice, 30c lb, best 50c lb.
Oolong or Black Tea, 20c lb, 30c lb, best 50c lb.
Imperial Tea, choice 30c lb, very best 50c lb
Japan Tea, common 10c lb, choice 30c lb, best 50c lb.

The 30c Japan Tea can not be beat. In fact, it will make as good a draw as the 50c, and few can tell the difference. It is sweet, high flavored and a rich drawing Tea. It is a lot of 50 chests we purchased of a New York house in closing out at half the usual price. No charge for trying it. You will try two pounds in place of one when you once see it.

THE SUGAR MARKET

In consequence of the movements of the sugar trust, sugar has been subject to severe fluctuations and the rises in 90 days was equal to 40 per cent, but in the last 30 days the tendency has been downward, and we have reduced all goods 1c lb. from the highest point we quote now:

Crushed and Powdered, 8½c lb. Cut Loaf and Granulated, 8½c lb.
Standard Coffee A., 8c lb. Choice Yellow Extra C., 7c lb.

COFFEE, RIO AND JAVA.

The same influences that governed the sugar market has also controlled the coffee—viz—a coffee trust and the price has been advanced and maintained the last year, in the face of a large crop and abundant supplies. There is now a prospect of a declining market. We are still selling our coffee's 5c below the market prices:

Choice Green Rio, 20c lb; Best Old Government Java, 25c lb; Choice Roasted Rio, 23c lb; Best Roasted Package Sampson Brand, 24c lb; Jersey Coffee, Roasted in Packages, 24c lb; Loverings Coffee, Roasted in Packages, 24c.

FIRST POINT

You should read THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because ignorance is expensive. You must read some paper. Probably you've always had a weekly—you can now afford a daily. THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS costs but one cent per copy—it's so cheap you can't afford to lose time waiting for a weekly. You ought to know about things when they happen—not a week later. You live in the nineteenth century, in the greatest section of the greatest country on the earth, and you can't afford to be left behind.

Remember—Its circulation is 220,000 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail 25 cts. a month, four months $1.00,—one cent a day.

ARTHUR STILL CHIEF.

He is Retained at the Head of the Engineers' Brotherhood--News From the Busy Centers.

The delegates who were in attendance at the national convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been in session for the past week at Denver, Col., have returned home. The closing hours of the session, when the chief of the Brotherhood was chosen, were interesting. The election occurred Tuesday.

The Ohio delegation named P. M. Arthur. This was followed by the nomination of Mr. Vroman, of North Platte, Neb., Mr. Vedder, of Sedalia, Mo., and Mr. Bellows, of Mississippi. An informal ballot was called for and the result showed that Arthur had the convention almost unanimously.

This great change in the feeling of the delegates is supposed to be the result of the recent trial and censure of Grand Officer Cavener, of Chicago. The first formal ballot decided the question by the following vote: Arthur, 313; Vroman, 101; Vedder, 1; Bellows, 1.

The convention adjourned at noon. On reassembling it proceeded to the election of third grand engineer. The result was not made public until night, when Chief Arthur stated that Joseph Sprague, of Canada, the incumbent, had been re-elected by a unanimous vote. Nominations were then made for second grand assistant engineer, and E. B. Dietrick, of Pennsylvania, was elected, and A. H. Butler, of Pittsburg, third grand assistant engineer. The next convention will be held at Pittsburg. George R. Dorety, of Toledo, was re-elected grand chaplin, and W. R. Buskey, of Bloomington, Ill., grand guide.

During the afternoon the convention appointed a committee to call upon John J. Hanrahan, of Chicago, vice grand master of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who was in the city, and request him to address the brotherhood. He appeared just before adjournment and delivered an interesting address, in which he heartily indorsed the question of federation.

OUR CLUB.

The car wheel moulders of the Bass works have an insurance and protective association of their own called "Our Club." When one of their members is taken sick, or injured, and for that reason is incapacitated from work, he is given a sick benefit of $10 a week. On death his widow or relatives is given $50 for funeral expenses.

The large majority of the moulders in the department belong to the club, and it is an excellent association. Last evening they held their annual meeting and elected the following officers: President, Charles Folmer; secretary, George Threadgal; treasurer, George Thompson; directors, Thos. Garnett, Frederick Kopp and Henry Threadgal.

CAR BUILDING.

The cars of the Pennsylvania railroad company at this point are built and put together at the east car shops and the material for them is furnished at the company's shops on Lafayette street. Every morning a train of four or five cars leaves the company's Lafayette street shops, loaded with every kind of material used in the construction of the cars, and is taken to the east yards for use.

This train is in charge of Engineer Eli Cramer, Fireman Kruse, Brakeman Reed and Conductor Davis, who are also the crew to the train that transports the employes of the east car shops from the the city to the works. This latter train leaves the Pittsburg depot every morning a little after 6 o'clock and returns again at night.

The car department of the company, Master Car Builder Graham tells us, employs some 300 men, and are now turning out five cars a day. Their capacity is greater than this but the lack of workmen and the difficulty in getting material prevents them from manufacturing a greater number. The department is very busy, and is pushing out work as rapidly as it can be done.

Few men understand their duties better than Mr. Graham, and the company is fortunate in having such an excellent official in charge of their car department at this point.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

Robert Castle, of White's Wheel works, is at Albion on business for the firm.

Will Lerch, machinist at the Bass works, is still off duty on account of one of "Job's comforters."

The Bass works have completed a Corliss engine for the electric light department of the prison at Michigan City.

Ticket Agent Douglass and Baggage Master Sunderland, of the Wabash, are now warming themselves with natural gas.

Conductor E. F. Beisberger is off duty on account of an injured hand and during his absence W. H. Grout is taking care of the local for him.

President Mackey, of the several Evansville lines, has not yet given up the hope of securing George Saul, general manager of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road, as general manager of the Mackey lines. On Saturday last the two officials had a lengthy conference.

H. Philloy, of the East Pittsburg yards, had one of his hands quite badly crushed between the cars yesterday and will be kept from duty for a time.

Alexander Fay, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, had his thumb quite badly mashed yesterday afternoon while at work and is off duty in consequence.

J. M. Kieser will remove his soap works, known as the Fort Wayne soap works, on Glasgow avenue, to his new building which is now being erected for that purpose.

Newell Wilson, yardmaster of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road at Cadillac, has resigned to accept a position with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy at Chicago.

Charles Scheffer, of White's wheel works, is off duty on account of injuries received by running a piece of steel into his hand, and John Tilbury is off duty also on account of an accident.

A party of officials of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road are on their tour of inspection over the road. The party is in charge of J. H. P. Hughart, and is accompanied by Mr. P. S. O'Rourke, superintendent of the southern division.

The theatrical managers had a good deal to say recently about the exorbitant rates—three cents per mile—charged by the railroad companies, but it is pretty generally known that special rates of two cents per mile are made to theatrical people in parties of ten or more by the majority of the railroads throughout the country. It is probably only where there is a lack of competition that the managers have to pay the regular three cents.

The time schedule of the special train which a few days ago carried the officers of the Pennsylvania system over the Vandalia shows that this train of five Pullman cars was hauled from East St. Louis to Duquoin in ninety-two minutes. The distance is seventy-one miles. Stops were made at three junction points and to take coal and water. Those on board the train presented the engineer, the fireman, the conductor and brakeman with a $5 gold piece each.

One Fact

Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It sooths the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. THE McClellan Memorial Association, of Philadelphia, has approved the designs of Architects Paul J. Pelz and Henry J. Ellicott for a monument to General McClellan, to be erected on the south front of the City Hall. It will be a portrait figure of the General in bronze, heroic in size, with its granite pedestal, thirty feet in height. The cost is estimated at $30,000, and the monument is to be ready for unveiling at the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, Sept. 17, 1890.

TAR-OID

NATURE HAS NO BETTER REMEDY

Than this New Compound of Tar for Wounds, Burns, Sores, Piles, Salt Rheum, Eczema, and Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Bronchitis, and Consumption.

TAR-OID CO., Sole Props., Chicago, Ill., U. S. A.

TAR-OID must not be confounded with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Skin Diseases are caused by impure blood, which is not true. They have their cause in a want of vital action in the skin. TAR-OID restores this action, hence it cures every form of Skin Disease, also sores, burns, etc. It is soothing and wonderfully healing—gratifying results follow in every case. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

The club will give a social hop November 7 to inaugurate the season's entertainments, which will be given every two weeks.

There is a reported case of destitution on Colerick street in which a family named Cole are said to be in great want. A lad of about twelve years made known such a state of circumstances, if they exist, by begging a gentleman to give him a nickel. The lad claimed to be son of a widowed mother named Cole, who has long been an invalid. He said he wanted money enough to buy bread. Trustee Brackenridge was notified and will investigate into the case.

The supreme court will have several important decisions to hand down during this and next week. It is possible the questions relative to the possession of state officers involved in the cases of Worrell against Peelle and Yancey against Gorby will be decided next week, but Wednesday or Thursday the decision relative to the constitutionality of the law increasing the liquor license may reach the record. The questions affecting the natural gas law may also be passed upon at this sitting of the court.

Miss Emma Nieman, of Warsaw, a sister of Charles Nieman, who died so suddenly at Atlanta, Ga., last week, has shown a letter written by Mr. J. F. Martin, of Atlanta, giving the full particulars of her brother's sudden demise. He did not die on the streets, as was first reported, but at a boarding house, where he had the kindest treatment from Mr. Martin and others. It seems that after a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, the first he had ever had, he slowly sank to his death. He was, as is well-known by the people of this place, in very feeble health; and indeed he went South in the hope of improving it, but this was not to be. A physician was called, and everything possible was done to alleviate his condition.

Mr. H. C. Hartman will leave shortly for Illinois on business.

Mr. C. C. Harris and bride returned yesterday from their wedding trip.

The concrete work on the new pavement will be finished sometime Friday.

Secretary Bower, of the Y. M. C. A., will lead the meeting at the Congregational church to-night.

The Morton club reception which was to have been held to-morrow night has been postponed one week.

Mr. Frank X. Schuler, the insurance agent, went to Ohio to-day to attend a state meeting of the Ohio Farmer's company.

There was a runaway on Hanna street to-day and the gates at the railroad crossing were damaged. No injury is reported.

The new depot at the northside will soon reach completion. It is an oddly constructed building, attractive and comfortable.

Mrs. Eliza Hayden, mother of J. W. Hayden, with whom she makes her home, has returned from the west after an absence of one year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Freeman, of Bluffton, are in the city. They remain over until to-morrow and will attend the Hanlon entertainment this evening.

Mr. William Jackson, the switchman, has received a telegram announcing the serious sickness of his brother, at Lima, Ohio, and he will leave for that place Friday.

George H. Killian and Clara Gruber, John Auk and Fayette Baker, Frederick Belding and Lucy Weizel, John E. Bell and Minnie Gerard Wallace have been licensed to wed.

Mr. Charles Hosier, of L. O. Hull's, has gone to visit in the southern part of the state. He will come back in matrimonial harness, but the name of the young lady can not be learned.

The following real estate transfers were recorded to-day: William D. Gordon to Joseph Dwenger, lots 161, 162, 163 and 164, Williams' addition; Henry F. Beverforden to Joseph Dwenger, lot 170, Williams' addition.

Last night John Williams was arrested by Officer O'Connell and Henry Brown was arrested by Officer Lee, both for intoxication. The former paid and Brown, in lieu of fine, will pay the penalty for his indiscretion in jail.

Supt. Max Hoffman had a force commence the work of digging trenches on Fox street, in South Wayne, this afternoon, and the denizens of that street will have natural gas in a few days. The mains are also being extended on South Fairfield avenue.

Summit City lodge No. 56, A. O. U. W., will give an entertainment and oyster supper to-morrow evening at their inviting hall, 106 Calhoun street. The event is for the purpose of celebrating in a social way the twenty-first anniversary of the order.

About noon to-day a team belonging to Joseph Duninger, living three miles south of the city on the Piqua road, ran away. The animals were hitched to a hay wagon. The runaway was stopped at the corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets, without much damage and no injury.

A dispatch from Angola says: "Cholera is fast making away with the hogs of this county, hundreds dying every day, many farmers losing their entire droves. The disease is spreading to all parts of the county, and every effort to check its progress has so far proved unavailing, and pork raisers are greatly discouraged. It is estimated that the loss will be many thousands of dollars, and but for the unprecedented apple crop and good prices, it would leave the farmers in pretty bad shape."

Warsaw Times: "George Reiter, of Fort Wayne, was in town to-day, and gave us a pleasant call. George is well known to the people of this place, where he has many warm friends. He carried the gold-headed cane presented him by his Masonic friends at Fall River, Kansas, just as he left that place a few days ago, and which was handed him as he took the train for his home in Fort Wayne. It is a handsome ebony stick, with a suitably engraved gold head, and Mr. Reiter prizes it very highly. We were pleased to see him looking so well."

Fort Wayne is not the only place where the "Old Homestead" had the effect of working on the sympathies of an audience. The attraction has been at Indianapolis, where an unusual incident was noticeable in the closing act and it was an affecting one. Mrs. Taddington was singing "Rock-a-by, Baby," the scene representing the rocking of a little one to sleep, with the chorus by the quartet, when there was a bursting sob of grief from one of the boxes, and a lady hastily arose and withdrew from the house, with her face buried in her hands. She was recognized as a mother who had recently lost a child, and many eyes filled with sympathetic tears when the fact was whispered about.

MACKIE LOCATED.

He Assumes the Superintendency of the Manhattan Electric Plant.—New Officers of the Jenney.

Mr. W. H. McGrath, who has superintended the Jenney electric light plant at Manhattan, N. Y., has arrived in the city and will at once assume the responsible duties of general superintendent in the immense works here.

Mr. McGrath is a man well informed and experienced in electrical matters and is a genial gentleman.

Mr. Brainard Borison is also an acquisition to the official force. He was formerly superintendent of the Jenney plant at Indianapolis, but by reason of the recent consolidation and removal to this city, he will become assistant manager to Mr. R. T. McDonald.

The place vacated by Mr. McGrath, at Manhattan, N. Y., has been filled by Mr. Robert Mackie, who is attached to the recent scandal with Mrs. Frank Falker. Mr. Mackie will, therefore, not return to Fort Wayne as some had predicted.

Mr. John G. Blake, of Richmond, is in the city.

Mr. Will Smith, of Bluffton, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Foellinger, the New Haven druggist, was in the city last evening.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis, of 11 Hoffman street, is down with diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Lycurgus Bates will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their marriage to-night.

Dr. T. J. Dills, who is the attending physician for Mrs. R. C. Bell, says the lady is slowly improving.

Mr. Henry Schuler and Miss Mary Budd, of Marion township, were married in the city yesterday.

Miss Clara Zollars will entertain friends to-morrow evening at her pleasant home on Brackenridge street.

The house of Wm. Beverforden was burglarized last night and an axe, an overcoat and a set of bed-springs taken.

Mr. Will J. Clear will retire from his duties of mail carrier this week, probably to-morrow. His successor is not yet named.

Mr. Strauss, of the overall factory, had a finger severed to-day. Charles Freese, of Meyer Bro.'s, dressed the member.

Rev. Shackleford, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, is holding religious meetings at a point three miles out on the Illinois road.

Henry C. Clay had his room, on Superior street, robbed last night, by Harry Waltham, a colored man, of a gold watch, money and other valuables. The thief was arrested at Valparaiso and brought here.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

I once let a professional swordsman cut apples in two while I held them on my head and on the palm of my hand, and I'll never do it again, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The experience is too thrilling for the plain citizen who is not military in his tastes. I was with a show when the regular assistant of the swordsman went on a strike. The swordsman was in a dreadful fume at the thought of disappointing the crowd of spectators that night. He came behind the scenes at rehearsal and called for a volunteer. "I'll give $25 to the man who'll hold the apple for me," said he. No one volunteered, and I daringly put in my ear. "I'll do it if you give me a rehearsal." "No rehearsal" said he, emphatically; "it will shatter your nerves so that you'll tremble like an aspen leaf when you come out at the performance."

So I went out when night came, the upper part of my body covered with a thin silk vest. It was cold anyway, and I trembled abominably. He saw it, but said nothing to me. I held the apple on my extended hand, and it shook. I could feel it shaking, and felt ashamed, but I couldn't control the nervousness. I turned away my head; he made a few rapid feints, and I knew by the applause that the apple had fallen. I didn't feel the blade at all as it cut through. Then I knelt down and he put another apple on my neck. I knew this was really dangerous, for if his hand slipped he might decapitate me. I shut my eyes. In a second, which seemed an hour to me, I felt a thin cold line touch my neck, and there was more applause.

"In that instant I thought of Mme. Roland and the guillotine, and came near fainting. He told me to get up, and I followed him, feeling rather dazed, to the dressing-room. I thought I must be cut, the touch of the steel had been so plainly felt, but the looking-glass showed me that there was not a mark on me. But I was awfully pale. The next night we got a regular man to hold the apple."

THE DIFFERENCE.

"My dear," said an impecunious, but affectionate young lawyer to his young wife, as he put his arm around her waist, "what is the difference between me and a dollar bill."

"A dollar," answered his wife, "is worth one hundred cents, while you are not worth one cent. Is that it, William?

"No," he said in a hurt tone, "one is a legal tender bill, and the other is a tender legal Bill."

A CHILD KILLED.

An Infant of Frank Horn Killed and the Mother Injured.

Last Sunday evening at dusk, Mr. Frank Horn, a resident of Springfield township, was driving home from church, accompanied by his wife and child.

The vehicle struck an obstruction, upsetting the wagon and throwing the occupants to the ground. Their little 14-months old child was so badly injured that death followed soon. The mother was also injured and may not recover.

"Gath's" Expressions.

My attention was lately directed to perhaps the largest Cyclopædia Biography of Americans that has ever been issued and I find it to consist of living persons mainly, although the dead of America were also included; but, as one of the editors said to me, "the people would rather know something of the living great men than too much about the dead great men."

Whenever I open a page of this interesting work I am tempted to write a whole letter from the thick-springing suggestions which come up.

It gives the best biography of Blaine I have seen, being particularly complete as to all his votes and measures in congress and the Senate.

Blaine gets in this Cyclopædia about nine columns of matter and Henry Clay, in the same volume, gets about the same.

It is not unfair to conclude that Clay and Blaine will stand very close together, as great favorites, with a vast following, who come only short of the greatest American honor.

It is said of William Cullen Bryant in this work, that he was the only American author who could afford to have three homes at once—a town house in New York, a country house on Long Island, and his family homestead in Massachusetts.

Did you know that Q. A. Gilmore, the engineer-general, was born in Ohio? He went to Norfolk Academy and Elyria High School, and started in life as a poet. Hearing him read one of his poems at school, a member of congress, who had a gizzard, nominated him forthwith with as a cadet to West Point.
